ASSASSINATION SYMPOSIUM ON JOHN F. KENNEDY

ASK '94 in Dallas, Texas, will present the most outstanding program of researchers, authors, activists and eyewitnesses possible. For the fourth consecutive year, the Assassination Symposium invites all interested individuals to visit the city where tragic history was made. Registrants will listen to and interact with the most knowledgeable individuals in the field of assassination research over a five-day period.

Will the Real Oswald Please Stand Up!

To understand the events of November 22, 1963, one must stand on the grassy knoll and peer over the fence into Dealey Plaza. Stand in the very spot where Abraham Zapruder recorded the shooting on film. And look down from the Sixth Floor of the School Book Depository, the alleged Sniper's Nest, to the street below.

We are pleased to announce Walt Brown, author, lecturer and a 30-year assassination researcher, as our Keynote speaker for 1994. Other outstanding panelists and speakers scheduled include: Gary Armstrong, Linton Aguilar, M.D., John Jonathan Ernest Brandt, Frank Camper, Michael Evica, Cohen, Adele E.U. Edisen, Ph.D., George Ian Griggs, Larry Ray Harris, John Judge, Jim Marrs, Al Navis, Joseph Riley, Aubrey Rike and Cyril Wecht, M.D., J.D. Many other panelists will confirm soon and be announced prior to the event.

The Warren Omission 30 Years of Doubt

Walt Brown
1994 Keynote Speaker

The ASK Mart, a popular feature of past Symposia, will offer information, products and memorabilia, as well as the latest books and papers, some with authors in attendance for autograph and interview opportunities. A souvenir program book/registrants' directory provides registrants access to information, products and networks throughout the year.

Contras & Cartels: Did the Oil & Drug Trade Kill JFK?

This year's event will take place in the Adolphus Hotel, a venerable Dallas landmark steeped in history, from whose balconies and windows guests cheered the President's motorcade, only blocks away from the fateful Dealey Plaza. Across the street once stood the infamous Carousel Club, owned by Jack Ruby.

Walt Brown, Ph.D., our 1994 Keynote Speaker, impressed our attendees last year with his intelligent analysis, couched in a quick wit and leavened with insightful commentary. He will bring these attributes to an overview retrospective of the Kennedy Assassination investigation at this 30th anniversary for the Warren Commission and 15th anniversary of the House Special Committee on Assassinations.

Mr. Brown has studied the Kennedy Assassination virtually since it happened. His books include The People v. Lee Harey Osward (1992), Blue Death, Red Patsy, White Lies, due in 1995, The Warren Omission (also due in 1995). He is active in COPA, and is currently working on a book that will take a unique look at Watergate.

Special Luncheons Available

WOMEN REGISTRANTS will again meet together at a luncheon during Saturday's noon break. This time to learn more about individual work and to recognize the contributions of female researchers and assassination theory activists should be interesting.

EDUCATORS who teach about the assassination in their work have requested an opportunity to meet together. We have scheduled that special luncheon for Sunday.

PROFESSIONALS (physicians and attorneys) will have a luncheon on Monday to discuss areas of mutual interest with their colleagues.

Luncheon tickets are $30. Reservations must be made in advance. Luncheon space is limited. Plan accordingly.

YOU WILL RECEIVE ONE MORE BULLETIN THAT WILL PROVIDE INFORMATION ON ADDITIONAL SPEAKERS AND OTHER DETAIL OR PROGRAM CHANGES, IF ANY.

PANELISTS & PRESENTERS FOR 1994

Gary Linton Aguilar, M.D. wrote the published professional response to Humes/Boswell's assertions in the Journal of the American Medical Association, and was an organizer of the political action group, Coalition on Political Assassinations (COPA).

John Armstrong has utilized information and assistance from Jack White and Jim Marrs to create a special Oswald presentation.

Ernest Brandt, in Dealey Plaza when the motorcade passed by, will be a new Eyewitness for ASK this year.

Frank Camper has been a researcher and observer of events in the Kennedy assassination investigations over the years, with a particular concentration on issues around Lee Harvey Oswald.

Jonathan Cohen, now in college, is the youngest speaker to appear at ASK, and is one of the most knowedgeable of the new generaltion of researchers. He contributes a regular column to the "JFK Honor Guard".

Adele E.U. Edisen, Ph.D. co-founded the Association for Women in Science and is a university and college professor of neurobiology. Dr. Edisen's personal experience and subsequent research will provoke probing discussions.

George Michael Evica, In his book, "And We Are All Mortal", discusses the possibility of a second Oswald. He is also an expert on Ruby's organized crime connections.

Ian Griggs, a former policeman, runs the JFK Assassination Information Center in Essex, England, and brings a continental viewpoint to the issues at hand.

Larry Ray Harris is reknowned for his informative bus tour narratives and his general overview of the assassination issues, as well as his research on Tippit and the Dallas police.

John Judge is a major organizer of COPA, a regular ASK participant and a professional critic of military policy.

Jim Marrs, the author of "Crossfire", a major information source for Stone's "JFK", has long questioned the findings of the Warren Commission. He also teaches a college course on the assassination.

Al Navis has been an ASK participant since 1991, and combines his Kennedy interests with his work with Almark & Co. Booksellers in Canada.

Joseph Riley, Ph.D., a research scientist trained in neurosciences and specializing in neuroanatomy and neuropathology, has discovered fundamental interpretive errors in the medical evidence.

Aubrey Rike was the employee of the funeral home who drove Kennedy's body from Parkland Hospital to the airport for transport back to Washington.

Cyril Wecht, M.D., J.D. is well known to ASK participants for his keynote and closing speeches in past years as well as his insights into both the legal and the medical evidence. He was also a consulting pathologist for the HSCA.

ASK MART and ADS

The ASK Mart is an area for the display and sale of books, videos, memorabilia and other assassination-related information or merchandise. Tables are available only to paid registrants. Table fees are: $225 per 6-foot table or $325 for a double-sized space. Tables for display only are $100.

Display Advertising is available in the ASK Program Book. Ad rates are $100 for a quarter page; $175 for a half; $300 for a full page; $375 for the inside back or front covers; and $500 for the outside back (2-color included). All advertising layout/copy must be postmarked by November 1.

Call 512/467-7979 for more info about tables or program ad. After November 1, add $50 to table prices.

Registrant Classifieds in the Program Book facilitate research networks, buying or selling of memorabilia or products. Classifieds have three categories.
