The Way the Government Is Going

Our Government seems to be going haywire. It has responded to the overmind or even notice. abuses and sanctioning their continuatelligence agencies by ratifying past Bureau of Investigation and other in-Central Intelligence Agency, Federal whelming evidence of misdeeds by the And very few people seem to quility of other countries. tivities include the use of military-type force, bribery, and tampering with the like acts, termed "covert activities," internal politics and domestic tranagainst has participated in a number of war-United States is at peace. These ac- Covert activities. The Government countries with which the decide when we go to war, the Presigressional approval. initiate such action without prior Conthat Congress, not the President, must dent continues to assert a right to Although our Constitution provides containing a watered-down compro-mise that hardly changes the status on its way to adopting a resolution less expressly permitted, the Senate is declaring such activities unlawful un-Instead of removing all doubt and

"special prosecutor" to investigate and prosecute crimes by intelligence enforcing the law against high office-Government seems uninterested in officials, but the Ford Administration made for the need for a temporary holders. A compelling case has been 2. Government lawlessness.

Schorr, a newsman, for providing The Village Voice with a "secret" report on intelligence that had already been crimes, the House of Representatives resists the notion. has decided to investigate Daniel Instead of concentrating on such > newspaper stories. leaked and described in a number of

By Raymond S. Calamaro

which Congress makes sure that the executive is enforcing the law consight has failed so badly in the past a new Senate committee is being consight responsibility. merely to give a new committee overthat much more must be done than tee is a very promising start, but overthe Government Operations Commitsidered. tion to improve oversight by forming sistent with the Constitution. A resolu-3. Oversight. This is the process by The measure approved by telligence. For a new oversight com-mittee to be truly effective, it will be necessary to require it to be inthat many legislators preferred not to know when it came to matters of information in investigative files. threat to individual rights, for example surveillance and dissemination of inligence activities that pose a particular Those subjects should include intelformed on certain specific subjects. The heart of the problem has been the resolution will be weakened by the Rules Committee. For example, it is known that a number of pro-F.B.I. or to write these requirements into a strengthen the resolution in this way, separate measure. But, unfortunately, some Senate staff members fear that It is not too late for the Senate to senators will attempt to deprive the power over legislation concerning F.B.I ineffective, as in the past, but laughpower, oversight would not just intelligence activities. to-be-formed oversight committee of Secrecy. The executive and the Congress seem to be falling all oevr this that it seems to have been foreach other to invent methods to prein the first place. gotten why we got into the subject tion. So much effort is being spent on vent disclosure of classified informa-

President from engaging the United tional rights, and how to prevent the agency abuse of people's, constituparamilitary activities. States in unauthorized military and ability by tightening procedures for protect these agencies from account-The problem is not how further to gress a bill to toughen penalties against individuals who disclose intelligence "sources and methods." as "sources and methods"). presumably, it could have been used to send Daniel Elisberg to prison for the Pentagon would probably describe information in these papers is what releasing the Pentagon papers (much President Ford has sent to the Con-

Without such be

The real questions are how to pre-vent the recurrence of intelligence-secrecy.

clause in our Constitution. sion to discipline senators for dis-Committee includes a pernicious provi being considered by the Senate Rules the spirit of the speech and debate Jacob K. Javits correctly argued, but closing secret information. As Senator to no avail, this provision contravenes In addition, the resolution presently tivity was banned by a 1967 executive curately, not solving-the problem is approach to solving - or, more acorder. organizations even though such ac order that permits the C.I.A. to inthe part of President Ford's executive filtrate student, labor and cultural 5. Infiltration. Typical of the whole of Central Intelligence William E. Colby agency crimes and bad acts. law." Intelligence has not been brought can say that intelligence has emerged "from the shadowy field outside the stretched inside the law; instead the law is being No wonder that the former Director ťo include intelligencemended dismantling the C.I.A. F. Stone, Henry Steele Commager and Garry Wills, who have recombudget of $10 billion on intelligence even a small fraction of its present whether our nation needs to spend gestions of serious individuals like We should consider carefully the sug-We should consider seriously tell us our national security depends on intense intelligence activities are depended on fighting a war in Vietnam. those who told us our national security Many of the same people who now to mind or even notice. Very few people seem organization. for Public Justice, a civil-liberties executive director of the Committee Raymond S. Calamaro, a lawyer, is