

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 2, 1976

Dear Harold:

It was good to get the letter from you last week.

I'm sorry that I can't be very helpful with sending you copies of the Kennedy assassination transcripts, but papers of the Kennedy Administration are no longer the property of the White House. I'm sure that the Kennedy Library in Waltham, Massachusetts, could help you find what you are looking for.

Thanks for your good wishes!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Ron Nessen".
