

JOHN R. FROINES ... standing ovation

Pilea for Panther Cheered

By Richard M. Cohen

Washington Post Staff Writer Nine hundred Montgomery County high school students cheered enthusiastically yesterday as a defendant in the 'Chicago, trial told them they must now turn their atttention to "getting Bobby Seale out of jail."

During a 45-minute speech the Montgomery County region of the Maryland Association of Student councils, John R. Froines, 31, returned repeatedly to the Seale, the Black Panther leader, as his audience interrupted with applause and shouts of "right on."

When he had finished, the students gave him a standing ovation. Many pressed around him to seek his autograph.

Federal Judge Julius Hoffman ordered Seale tried separately form the other seven defenants in the Chicago riot conspiracy trial and sentenced him to four years in jail for contempt of court after Seale insisted on defending himself. Froines was one of two defendants acquitted by the jury, but faces a sentence of five months and 15 days for contempt.

Froines told the students assembled at Montgomery Blair High School that Seale "was the most important thing in and suggested that pressure the most symbolic thing in the in his release. whole trial."

they could not bind and gag "When Bobby Seale was taken Bobby Seale," he added. "And away nothing happened. That no matter how hard the gov-can't be. ernment tries they can't bind and gag the black revolution court that got us out," pending movement in the United appeal, he continued. "It was States."

Froines, chemistry at the University of bara (where a Bank of Amer-Oregon, reproached America branch was burned), New can young people for blandly York and especially Washingaccepting the jailing of Seale ton."

the whole case. I think he was from the people would result

"When we were taken off to "Because no matter how jail there was rioting across hard the government tried the country," Froines said.

> "It wasn't the appellate the people of the country. The a professor of people in Berkeley, Santa Bar-