FBI & Cook Co. why Conyers

Ask probe of police here in Hilts 'conspiracy'

[redacted] of police internal investigation [redacted] to discuss information relevant to the [redacted] and to evidence a conspiracy of [redacted].

[redacted] numbers, given out by police that [redacted] reportedly available, on the West Side, [redacted] Commonwealth Edison men that were [redacted] explosion. The police officers involved [redacted] [redacted] connection to the disappearance of [redacted].

[redacted] Hampton, Illinois leader of the Black [redacted] Party, was shot to his West Side [redacted] during [redacted] police from [redacted] headquarters.

[redacted] said he found the clothes of [redacted] Hilts, another Panther [redacted].

[redacted] Davis, who is campaigning [redacted] Democrat in the racially mixed 7th [redacted] District, charged Sunday that [redacted] organizations were distributing [redacted] literature through the police department's mail system.

[redacted] Davis' backer, said Monday [redacted] of charges that the police was a [redacted] and [redacted] would order an investigation.

[redacted] Schmetterer, first assistant U.S. attorney here and Todd's opponent in the office, [redacted] and [redacted] in the contest to nominate "any [redacted] he wants to [redacted]."

[redacted] said he did turn over to Schmetterer information on the hate literature he said was sent through the police mail system.

Savage also said he had declined to discuss the literature with the police internal inspections division, which had contacted him about the matter.

"Incidents [redacted] involving the relationship of the Chicago Police Department to the black community such as those of Mitchell and John Hilts, Fred Hampton and the [redacted]