YOUNG URGES RESIGNATION OF HANRAHAN

[illegible] GOODYEAR

Whitney Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban league, yesterday supported the Chicago Urban league in its call for the resignation of State's Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan.

Young, speaking at a press conference, called Hanrahan [illegible] dealing with [illegible] "ineffi-cient" in dealing with organized crime. He referred to the killing of two Black Panther leaders in a raid by state's attorney's police.

"If Hanrahan's new-found efficiency [illegible] in moving [illegible] Panthers [illegible] on the [illegible] would [illegible] not being singled out," he said. "Seventy per cent of the crime in the black community is tied to drugs [illegible] prostitution—[illegible] by the [illegible].

"Unless there is a followup of this [illegible] investiga-[illegible] jury has [illegible] it will be [illegible] black [illegible] singled out [illegible]," he added. "A [illegible]—this [illegible] gap."

Young, who also is president of the National Association of Social Workers, was here for the National Conference on Social Welfare, which continues [illegible] Hilton [illegible] the [illegible] unrealistic if [illegible] investment.
