MINUTE FOR THE RECORD

Meeting of Branch 1 Task Force, 9 March 1960

ATTENDEES: Col. J. C. King, C-13

and other CIA personnel

King told the group that the DOD is presenting a special policy to the UN representatives. He mentioned getting evidence that the "Commies" in the C-SBRC Government have been pushing for an attack on the island of Cuba and said that an attack on Cuba is in fact, possible.

Col. King stated that the major problem in this operation is how to get the word of Cuba with the truth. To date, he said, we have been using of certain American islands that might be useful for either PP or CIA. In addition, a number of Chiefs of State of friendly countries are at the moment unwilling to "stick their necks out" in support of operations directed at the overthrow of the GARCIA regime in Cuba. He stated that unless Fidel and Raul are eliminated in one package - which is highly unlikely - the operation may be a long drawn-out affair and the present situation may be a result of the use of force.
