RE: MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION MEMO

1. Current Dallas Addresses:

a. LESTER L (BETH) LOGUE, 12640 Hillcrest Rd., with Logue & Patterson, Geologists, 628 Meadows Building, Dallas.

b. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, 4029 Byers, Fort Worth, Texas, telephone PErshing 2-6839.

c. JULIA POSTAL (cashier, Texas theater) FRanklin 6-5750 (unl) office: WH 6-2161 (still with theater chain). Now Vogue Theater.

d. WALLY WELCH (Wallace H., Jr.) TA 6-5192; addresses believed to be 7024 Irongate and 6170 Sherry Lane.

e. ROBERT SCHMIDT (brother of Larrie H.) 5610 Lewis street, Apartment D., Dallas.

f. RAY BRANTLEY, Ray's Sporting Goods, 730 Singleton, Dallas.

g. BETTY McDONALD & Glover's party: now wife of Dr. Alan N. Miller II, office 2105 Carpenter Freeway (BL 5-3353) residence 1225 W.Crauwyler, Irving, Tex., BL 4-9629, states she attended the party unescorted upon invitation of EVERETT GLOVER.

h. DAVE CHERRY, Nancy Perrin Rich escort-contact, 10036 Regal lane, Dallas.

i. GENERAL EDWIN A. WALKER, 4011 Turtle Creek Drive, LA 1-4115

2. VOLKMAR SCHMIDT has had the same room mate since 1964, one Manly Williams, at 4724 Alcott, Apt. 206, Dallas.

3. TOMMY ROWE, who allegedly told shoe store manager OSWALD had gone into theater, until recently lived in Apt. 206 with FREDDIE WOODALL, at Ruby's last address--223 S. EWING.

4. J. CARLIN BRANDT, chief accounting clerk for Mobil Oil, moved from 601 N. Ewing st. in 1963 to 223 S. Ewing, Jack Ruby's apartment house. Brandt is the name of the prime suspect in the Minute Man recruitment effort in the Matamorros bar six weeks before the assassination who told Alan Dale's informant that the Minute Men had a contract to kill JFK.

The latter Brandt--one John Brandt, combination gunsmith and Minute Man from the Ray Brantley circle in Dallas, a former employee of Brantley's, dropped out of directory listings after the assassination, and Penn Jones advises via Mary now that John Brandt is living covertly at 2960 Colfing Green, Farmers Branch, Texas, another widely recognized residential area of Dallas, which was a hot-bed of anti-castro speeches and activities prior to the assassination. At the time of the killing, JOHN BRANDT was living at 801 Rindie, Irving. He was given a job by LING-TEMPCO-VAUGHT, then disappeared about a year ago, ostensibly for an operation, and went into his present hiding in Farmers Branch.

5. PAULINE BULLOCK, a waitress at the BECKLEY CLUB CAFE, who lives at 104 S. Rosemont, Oak Cliff, Dallas, positively identifies from our photo file as customers she has seen in the Beckley Club during the summer and/or fall of 1963: GORDON NOVEL, LAWRENCE HOWARD, LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND JACK RUBY. She can not, however, recall any two of them having been there together. Of note, however, is that she recognized only RUBY by name and picture; she had to be told Oswald's name from his N.O.P.D. photograph.

6. MARGUERITE OSWALD suggests that LEE might actually have been taking curtain rods to a new apartment he was preparing for Marina. She commented that she had tried to locate the Cozy-8 Apartments mentioned by GARY TAYLOR in his testimony of the time he went hunting Lee when the latter was missing from Dallas during an extended period of time.

The Cozy-8 Apartments, since renamed, were located at 1306 N. Beckley, and were owned in 1963 by Sam. J. Morris, now of Kerrville, Texas, Rte. 1-Box 61 South Hilltop Place. The 1963 Manager of the Cozy-8 Apartments, left in early 1964 for parts unknown, naturally.

7. JACK D. NEAL, about 40, last known address: 3933 Stanford, Dallas, described by Dallas Research-Associate, as far-out Nazi type who ridicules the Minute Men as too-liberal. SUE FITCH was frequently requested to provide names of foreign acquaintances in Dallas area to Neal. Source says NEAL left Dallas in 1959 or 1960 for work in Germany, where he worked in radar and radio technology.

He returned to Dallas in 1964 or early 1965, proudly showing pictures of himself standing beside bodies of slain Russian military personnel. This man apparently is a spotter-recruiter for ultra rightwing prospects in the Dallas area. His former landlady told friends that he spent most of one entire day burning papers prior to departing for Germany. NEAL's ostensible profession is maintenance of bakery equipment, but Source states he dresses expensively and always carries unusually-large sums of cash for a tradesman. NEAL speaks German fluently and once showed Source a notebook of names which he said were his German and Russian contacts across the U.S. Source states there is some connection (yet to be developed) between NEAL and VOSHININ of the Report..

8. IN ROBERT SCHMIDT's mailbox at Apt. D, 5610 Lewis Street, on 8/13/67 was a letter addressed to J. PATRANO, former occupant Apt. E, that address, forwarded to PATRANO at 4411 Munger st., Dallas. Residents of 5610 Lewis, state that SCHMIDT comes and goes at irregular hours; that he never is alone (i.e., there always are one or two men with him) and that he answers his door only to apparently-coded knocks, for he admits some who call and not others.

9. MIKE ACOCA of LIFE Magazine stated that the FBI informed him the 1957 Chevrolet pictured parked behind GENERAL WALKER"s residence in the Warren Report, with the license plate obliterated, belonged to CHARLES KALIHR of 2046 Rosebud. A check of Dallas City Directories in 1963 revealed neither a KALIHR nor a Rosebud street.

10. In 1961 and 1962 JAMES WETHERBEE, attorney in Shaw*s notebook, lived at 5650 Gaston Ave., Dallas in Apartment D. His neighbor in Apt. E was Jerry T. Mangus, manager of Uncle Jake*s loans at 2422 Elm street, which is a part of HONEST JOE GOLDSTEIN"S empire. The directory lists Uncle Jake's Loans as Uncle Jake's Pawn Shop, with Harry J. MYERS and SAM RACHOFSKY, proprietors, but it is a part of The Honest Joe building..
