Trial of 3 Bombing Suspects Delayed

poned the trial of three persons leged escape attempt was not recent news stories alone would accused of bombing eight build- disclosed until Wednesday. ings here last fall.

cent explosions, made a fair fall.

it clear that this is done not of his attempted escape as well of the house as that of Miss because of prejudicial pub-licity, but because of unre-licity, but because of unre-by the police to determine if lated events similar to the there was any relationship be-crimes charged in this indictment."

explosion last Friday in a house have set off three bombs yestories of the news stories cited on West 11th Street, as prejuby the defendants' lawyers dedicial, pre-trial publicity.

have set off three bombs yesterday morning and the Melville group.

By CRAIG R. WHITNEY
In the midst of new explosions and bomb scares yesterday, a Federal Judge post-day, a Federal Judge post-bis arrest last Nov. 12. His al-said, but he denied that the disclosed until Wednesday. prevent a fair trial.

Mr. Melville, John D. Hughey As for the West 11th Street

Ings here last fall.

The trial was to have begun next Wednesday, but the defendants argued that public concern and "hysteria" over the latest bombings, and news responses bombings and a fair fall.

Mr. Melville, John D. Hughey as for the West 11th Street case, Assistant United States Attorney John J. Doyle 3d said yesterday that pictures of Miss Swinton, who is still at large, people in that neighborhood to determine whether she had been seen there but that ne

Judge Milton Pollack, saying Swinton, whois still at large, lished between her and the exhibit wanted "to lean over back- is also accused, with them, of wards to insure for these debombing six other buildings befendants their right to a fair tween last July 27 and Nov. 120 of Investigation also said yestiful." granted a delay until Mr. Melville is the alleged that they have not been leader of the group.

A fourth suspect, Patricia E. relationship had been estabpril 29. leader of the group. able to identify the body of a But, he said, "I wish to make His lawyers denounced stories woman found in the wreckage