Bond Set at $250,000 Post 10/21/7/ Brown Arraigned in Hospital

From News Dispatches

militant H. Rap Brown was arraigned today in his hospital bedroom here on charges of attempted murder, robbery, and illegal possession of weapons. His bond was set at $250,000.

The 28-year-old activist was listed in fair condition at Roosevelt Hospital where he is recovering from two abdominal bullet wounds received in a shootout with police last Saturday following the holdup of a West Side bar.

guarded room, State Supreme ain't my lawyer." Court Justice James Yeargin Kunstler is also represent known to have spent some also appointed William Kuning Brown's three codefentime in St. Louis where the stler as attorney for Brown.

The judge referred to the Sam Petty, 23, Arthur Young, NEW YORK, Oct. 20—Black defendant, who denies he is 25, and Levi Valentine, 24. Brown and calls himself Roy Williams, as "Mr. Brown or reduced the bond for the three whomsoever" at Kunstler's in- from $150,000 to $100,000 each sistence. Police have remained on a charge of possession of firm in their identification of dangerous weapons. Brown, saying they have "conclusive" fingerprint identifica-

> Kunstler, Brown on previous occasions before he disappeared 19 months ago, has said the patient "did not look like Rap Brown to me."

hearing in Brown's heavily "This ain't no -Court, and he arson charges in Maryland dants in the Saturday robbery, three codefendants lived.

On Tuesday, Judge Yeargin

No bond was set on the attempted homicide and robbery charges since prosecutors said they intend to take evidence who defended of the alleged crimes directly to the grand jury.

Brown, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, successfully evaded FBI agents for West Side bar.

During the arraignment nearly two years. He was brief arraignment hearing, Brown told the judge, scheduled to face trial on when he disappeared and was