

Krassner starts new publication

Paul Krassner, editor of the Realist and a Yippie founder, revealed in the current issue of Sundance magazine that he has begun a new publication, called Conspiracy Newsletter, to be published twice a month. Krassner is co-editing the new periodical with Mae Brussell, a political research analyst who did exhaustive research into the Kennedy assassinations.

According to Krassner's account in Sundance, the first issue of Conspiracy Newsletter will deal with Arthur Bremer, George Wallace's would-be assassin. The Wallace assassination attempt, says Krassner, "seems to have been a deliberate attempt to prepare the American public for the assassination of Richard Nixon so that martial law can be declared" and the elections cancelled. The premise behind Krassner's theory is that following the assassination of John Kennedy in 1963, there was "a literal takeover of the government."
