Post 7/24/73

Bugging Charge

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.— The president of the Florida Senate said his office and the offices of six other state senators were targets of illegal bugging attempts during a recent legislative session.

Although Senate President Mallory Horne declined to identify the other senators involved in the bugging attempt, he said, "They were the chairmen of most of my major committees."