Dear "Journalistic ^CScavenger" and Purveyor of "Pure Garbage":

How is the eternal search going on? Events have been coming thick and fast, and you must be up to your neck. I faithfully kept up each day as the flood before and after Nov. 22 came on. I never realized the anniversary would bring forth such an outpouring. Very interesting developments some good, some bad. The Times call for a reopening was too marvelous to believe, but the schizophrenic performance of the Lucepapers left me puzzled. An Establishment tactic to deceive the public? I wonder.

Also fascinating is Pearson's claim that the autopsy photos were suppressed because they showed evidence of active Addison's Disease in JFK. I tend to believe this is another officially-offered lie being ^{put forth to} ~~satisfy~~ mislead people as to why the suppression, so their doubts will be allayed. Sounds conceivable, but a rat may be smelled. What do you think?

I have enclosed a letter which my hometown paper printed. The reference to Connally occurred before he wh weasled and said he backed the Commission fully, almost. I would have deleted that passage. The other is a longer thing that they didn't have room for. I was sorry I couldn't get it printed, for I wanted to send copies to Congressmen and Senators.

I hope your work is progressing satisfactorily. Don't forget to put my name on the list for announcement of the publication. My address will probably change by then, but I will send the new one.

What a great Congress this new one could be if, among other things, it excluded Powell and reopened the investigation. But both are too good to be true, I'm afraid.

Sometime when you get a chance, I'd like to hear what's new in the ongoing search. Best of luck. And if I can be of any help in the future, clerical, or whatever, don't hesitate to let me know. I don't mind working on something I believe in. Incidentally, how does one get ahold of the Lebeuf books? Write to Levittown? I've read about ~~everything~~ everything but them and Ferd's book.

Yours truly,

Bruce Cossaboom

P.S. TV show was great - I thoroughly enjoyed it - I think the impact was very favorable - Bishop was awful but your questioning of Savage's plus Lane's demonstrations carried the day - or thought?!
