Defense Rests in B-26 Trial As CIA Denies Involvement

19/12/66 By Joseph Higgins Special to The Washington Post

smuggling B-26 bombers to in September of 1965. Portugal rested their cases judge's charge to the jury is attack bombers for delivery to set for Thursday.

Just before the two defense lawyers rested their cases, U.S. Attorney John T. Curtin elicited testimony from the top lawyer of the Central Intelligence Agency that the CIA had no part in ferrying the bombers.

Edwin Marger of Miami Beach, Fla., one of the defense counsel, has maintained the CIA secretly approved of the against Communist-led rebels in Portuguese Africa.

"Did your investigation reveal that the CIA in no way helped the flight of these air. yarn of involvement in this craft from the U.S.?" Curtin case is pure theory." asked.

"That is correct," said CIA General Counsel Lawrence R. Houston.

the CIA's file of four memos witness, a Boeing Airplane Co. CIA received notice of the bomber exports a week be-fore the first bomber crossed the border near here in June

CIA Passed On Data

Houston testified the CIA had no jurisdiction in the case and sent the information on ot agencies which it thought would be interested.

about 20 other CIA documents | he closed the file on the viowith him, all dealing with de- lation after Hawke explained BUFFALO, Oct. 11—Law velopments in the case after yers for two/men accused of the defendants were arrested

On trial are Henri M. F dethis afternoon in the fourth Marin de Montmarin, 58, a week of a Federal District Paris businessman accused of Court trial of the case. The ordering 20 World War II type Portugal, and John R. Hawke, 28, a Fort Lauderdale, Fla. pilot accused of flying the craft overseas. They are charged with conspiring to violate the Munitions Control Act which makes it illegal to export certain weapons of war without special State Department permission.

Judge Bars CIA Papers

Judge John O. Henderson examined the latest CIA paexport because the Portuguese pers in his chambers for 90 were going to use the bombers minutes , before refusing to turn them over to Marger on the grounds they were relevant and immaterial." Said the judge, "The CIA

For Hawke's defense, Marger caused 11 witnesses to be subpoenaed at Government expense, Edward Brodsky, of Houston first took the stand New York, attorney for last Friday, bringing with him deMontmarin, called only one on the bomber case. One of official who testified to prethe memos showed that the vious dealings with deMontmarin, Brodsky has maintained that deMontmarin expected a missing defendant in the case, Gregory R. Board, to obtain export licenses for the aircraft.

FAA Witness

Among rebuttal witnesses called by Curtin was John B. Newell, a Federal Aviation Agency employe at the Wash-Today Curtin told the court ington National Airport, New-Houston had brought ell testified he investigated when Hawke flew a B-26 over the White House in June 1965.

Marger has contended that the flight through the prohibited zone, which resulted in no official action being taken against Hawke, proved that the Government had no intention of stopping the B-26 to him that he had engine trouble coming into the airport. "We found that Hawke took on 53 gallons of oil after landing, an excessive amount, Newell said. "So we closed our file because the pilot had an emergency," he said.

However, Newell testified