(this is a legitimate advertisement)*

ard, Your note on the CIA recruiting ad from the U Penna paper is "this is a legitimate advertisement". In the sense that it is an open rather than a blind ad, agreed. But I'd like a "legitimate" explanation of why, in the list of four skills or area, "Journalism" is #1st included and second, restricted to "graduate students only". You will notice other skills sought limit the need for what could be imputed as the skills of journalism graduate students. Would you think they are looking for more Hunts? H
