"If every person has the right to defend - even by force - his person, his liberty, and his property, then it follows that a group of men have the right to organize and support a common force to protect these rights constantly." THE LAW, by Frederic Bastiat, Paris, 1850

AMERICANS ARE AN ENDANGERED SPECIES because too many citizens have failed to understand, or even recognize the fact that gross changes have been gradually and illicitly brought about in the political and sociological climate of this land.

It is evident, however, that a subtle and perilous change has occurred in America. Within the past two or three generations the civilization of our forefathers has come under sophisticated assault. The structures of freedom erected at such great cost in blood, sweat and treasure, are crumbling. Our God is blasphemed, our lineage reviled, and our Constitution dismantled.

Our destiny has turned to dust.

Americans have been reduced to economic serfs in the land that once was theirs. A secret government of monetary power, employing perverted mass media and the coercive authority of a captured Bureaucratic Civil Service, is forcing us into a "New World Order" of "Liberty, Fraternity, Equality."

To liquidate this threat to life and property Americans must first accept the fact that the frame of reference upon which they erroneously rely to preserve the Republic no longer exists.

Gone is the Constitution, and its protective covenants. Gone are the courts, and their shield to personal freedom. Gone is representative government, and the sovereignty of the individual. Gone is the U. S. dollar, and its authority in the market place. All have been surreptitiously phased out of the society to usher in a totalitarian, one world autocracy of the financial "elite."

There is, however, a practical and attainable solution to the state of national emergency. Conscientious men and women can successfully energize State power to expose the covert transfer of State and Federal sovereignty to private interests.

The law involved is the fundamental law of agency. Actions of an agent are not binding upon the principal if those actions are not authorized by the principal. Constitutionally, departments of government are agents of the States . . . which created them by constitutional compact.

The mission of informed citizens, therefore, is to activate the sovereign powers of the State to expose and neutralize interlocking subversion in government departments and restore control of government to the people.

America need not become a land of "yesterday's people." All it takes to regain the freedoms lost is the courage to face today's political reality, and to implement successful techniques and procedures to reverse the mindless march toward the new feudalism.

Write to us today. We will show you how.

LEGISLATIVE ACTION PROCEDURE generated by this Committee has the exciting objective of harnessing the powers of State government to local organizations so that individual Americans can meet and resolve the peril of imminent dictatorship.

These vital recruiting and political action programs must be accelerated and extended.

TO HELP ESTABLISH a reliable financial base for our outreach we suggest that you commit yourself to a regular monthly contribution to realistically subsidize this cause which is so vital to you and to generations of Americans yet unborn. Send a check for as much as you can afford to invest in liberty.

THE POSSE COMITATUS

In the formation of this Constitutional Republic the COUNTY has always been — and remains to this day — the TRUE seat of the government for the citizens who are inhabitants thereof. The County Sheriff is the only legal law enforcement officer in these United States of America.

The Sheriff can mobilize all men between the ages of 18 and 45 who are in good health and are not in the federal military service. OTHERS CAN VOLUNTEER! This body of Citizens is the SHERIFF'S POSSE. All of them serve when called by the Sheriff. The Title of the Body is POSSE COMITATUS.

This Posse is the entire body of those inhabitants who may be summoned by the Sheriff, or who may volunteer, to preserve the public peace or execute any lawful precept that is proposed. Since the Sheriff is the servant of the citizens who are inhabitants of the County, it is not his choice as to whether or nor the Posse is organized and brought into being. It is only his choice as to whether or not he wishes to use it.

The Sheriff is under Oath of Office to uphold, preserve and defend the Constitution of these United States and the State in which his COUNTY exists. NOTHING MORE! It is his duty to protect citizens from unlawful acts of any person, including agencies of government. It should be emphasized that this protection extends to citizens who are being subjected to unlawful acts by officials of government, whether these be judges of Courts or Federal or State Agents of any kind whatsoever.

REGIONALISM

The Quiet Revolution

by Archibald E. Roberts, Lt. Col., AUS, ret.

"New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other State; nor any State be formed by the junction of two or more States, or parts of States, without the consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned, as well as the Congress."

UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION, Art IV, section 3, paragraph 1.

Transformation of the United States Republic to a dictatorship of the "financial elite," the New World Order fashioned for Americans by the Council on Foreign Relations, reached political reality in 1972 under the administration of President Richard M. Nixon.

Although given little publicity, the White House, on March 27, 1969, pronounced that the United States had been divided into ten Metro regions. In so doing, President Nixon and his controllers set in motion a series of pre-planned events which would, by February 12, 1972, place virtually every facet of the lives of U. S. citizens under the domination of socialist planners.

Flouting the prohibitions of Article IV, United States Constitution, Mr. Nixon, in his statement of 1969, "Restructuring of Government Service Systems," purported to "streamline" the Department of Labor, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Office of Economic Opportunity, and the Small Business Administration by establishing "uniform boundaries and regional office locations."

Significantly, regional boundaries and the boundaries of major United Nations programs, and Federal Reserve System areas, in the United States were made co-terminus.

Few realized then, or comprehend now, that regional governance is a new form of government which has been covertly engineered to replace the city, county, state, and school district system. Boundary lines of these familiar political subdivisions are to be dropped and a new set of geo-political lines followed.

Under regional government there are now ten U. S. provinces, or regions. Each province has a designated "capitol" to handle all matters within that particular province. Offices of HUD, OEO, SBA, and Labor were moved into the new capitols of each province, with more agencies added later. The objective is to establish the mechanics for controlling the lives and ambitions of the people from a central authority in Washington, and to direct their efforts into channels ordered by a Bureaucratic Civil Service.

An examination of the type of government proposed under regional government shows that it is a government by appointed rather than elected officials. Under regional government disfranchised U. S. citizens are to be held in bondage, in perpetuity, as producers and servers for a self-appointed Oligarchy.

The ten new political subdivisions to which the fifty States have been allocated by this unconstitutional decree are:

REGION I — Capitol: Boston
Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont.

REGION II — Capitol: New York City
New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands.

REGION III — Capitol: Philadelphia
Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, District of Columbia.

REGION IV — Capitol: Atlanta
Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee.

REGION V — Capitol: Chicago
Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, Wisconsin.

REGION VI — Capitol: Dallas-Fort Worth
Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas.

REGION VII — Capitol: Kansas City
Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska.

REGION VIII — Capitol: Denver
Colorado, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, Wyoming.

REGION IX — Capitol: San Francisco
Arizona, California, Hawaii, Nevada.

REGION X — Capitol: Seattle
Alaska, Oregon, Washington, Idaho.

One of the early federal money bills designed to finance Metro governance in the nation was H. R. 2519, introduced by Congressman Reuss, January, 1969. This bill was to provide bloc grants if regional "modernization" conditions were met by the States.

To qualify for the promised grants the States were required to enact legislation enabling, or mandating in some instances, the collectivizing of counties into sub-regions which would fit neatly into the federal ten-region governance formed by Presidential proclamation.

Following the White House pronouncement of March 27, 1969, the same measure was renumbered H.R. 11764 and re-introduced on May 28 by the same congressman. Sections were added to give control over twenty-two and a half billion tax dollars for Metro funding to one man, President Nixon.

On February 12, 1972, Mr. Nixon dropped the other shoe.

By Executive Order 11647, Federal Regional Councils, (Federal Register No. 30) the President authorized staffing of the ten regional capitols, and effected appointment of a chairman, or commissar for each province.

"Three years ago," said Mr. Nixon in his order, "I directed the senior regional officials of certain of the grant-making agencies to convene themselves in regional councils to better coordinate their services to Governors, Mayors, and the Public.

"Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States it is hereby ordered as follows:

"SECTION 1, Federal Regional Councils. (a) There is hereby established a Federal Regional Council for each of the ten standard Federal regions. Each Council shall be composed of the directors of the regional offices of the Department of Labor, Health, Education, and Welfare, and Housing and Urban Development, the Secretarial Representative of the Department of Transportation, and the directors of the regional offices of the Office of Economic Opportunity, the Environmental Protection Agency, and the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. The President shall designate one member of each such Council as Chairman of that Council and such Chairman shall serve at the pleasure of the President. Representatives of the Office of Management and Budget may participate in any deliberations of each Council."

It is intended, of course, that regional council members will assume all real authority over State governments and the people they represent. The people and the States will be reduced to political impotency.

The image of a police state becomes chillingly real under the provisions of Executive Order 11490, "Assigning Emergency Preparedness Functions to Federal Departments" (Federal Register, October 30, 1969). By this order regional council members, under color of law, can control all food supply, money and credit, transportation, communications, public utilities and other facets of the lives of every citizen.

Seizure of private property via the ploy of reassessment under United Nations tax guidelines; homes, businesses, and farms, is a concurrent objective of the madmen who now direct national policy.

Robert C. Weaver, former Chief, Department of Housing and Urban Development, said of Metro governance:

"Regional government means absolute Federal control over all property and its development regardless of location, anywhere in the United States, to be administered on the Federal official's determination. It (regional government) would supersede state and local laws . . . Through this authority we seek to recapture control of the use of land, most of which the government has already given to the people."

World government planners hope to achieve federalization of all land, resources and production facilities under regional government authority without serious public challenge. Self-rule and self-determination are to be phased out of the society, the Constitution overthrown, and the citizen made an economic serf in the country that once was his.

President Nixon, in his plea for cooperation in "revenue sharing" (another technique for financing Metro governance) admitted that we are experiencing a "New American Revolution." Proof that the "New American Revolution" is an actual revolution is born out by evidence from "Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Urban Affairs of the Joint Economic Committee," United States Congress, May 19-26, 1971:

"REGIONALISM: The Quiet Revolution.

"Local government is changing itself in an effort to better meet the needs of the people. Across the nation, cities, counties, towns, and school districts that serve a common area are joining together in a regional effort to solve mutual problems. In a quiet way, regionalism is a revolution in the structure of our Federal system."

The impact of Metro governance on the freedoms of person and property formerly guaranteed to the people by the Constitution is obvious.

Interlocking subversion in government departments can, however, be successfully challenged by an informed electorate motivated to act within the authority of the U. S. Constitution.

The law involved is the fundamental law of agency: Actions of an agent are not binding on the principal if those actions are not authorized by the principal. Constitutionally, States are Principals and federal departments are Agents of the State.

To escape the "New World Order" being prepared for us by the Council on Foreign Relations and the aristocracy of finance Americans must demand that their State lawmakers investigate the illegal actions of federal agents who attempt to abridge the U.S. Constitution in violation of their oath of office.

"PEACE: By the Wonderful People Who Brought You Korea and Viet Nam is must reading and will serve as a ready reference for true American patriots in their fight against the collectivist enemies of individual liberty under Constitutional government."

THE OFFICER WHO SUCCESSFULLY SUED UNITED STATES ARMY PUBLISHES EXPLOSIVE NEW BOOK

PEACE: BY THE WONDERFUL PEOPLE WHO BROUGHT YOU KOREA AND VIETNAM

By Soldier—Author,
ARCHIBALD E. ROBERTS, LT. COL., A.U.S., Ret.

Foreword by:
THE HONORABLE JOHN R. RARICK, M.C.

Here are the hard facts on high finance and world revolution through the United Nations, the Council on Foreign Relations and the Federal Reserve System by the man who wrote the prizewinning book, VICTORY DENIED.

Roberts charges the Federal government has been captured by a secret government of monetary power which now seeks to coerce the American people into a 1984 Orwellian Animal Farm.

This is a book that could change the course of American History.

There is, says Roberts, a sophisticated attack on Western Civilization by those seeking to destroy this Republic and establish a totalitarian government of the financial elite. He identifies the Mattoids who are creating one world government in the name of peace. He shows how an aroused citizenry can inspire application of sovereign state power to restore sanity and return control of this nation to the people. He details a victory plan.

This is a book that is bound to be one of the great bestsellers of 1973.
