

SUNDAY 11/12/72

[For answers, see below.]

1) Which top Nixon adviser belonged just before World War II to a secret Nazi sect which called its leader "der Fuhrer"?

2) True or false. Republican chairman Robert Dole and Interior Secretary Rogers Morton appointed one of Hitler's leading propagandists to serve the Republican National Committee.

3) Multiple Choice. The United States first committed an act of war against Vietnam in (a) 1845 (b) 1904 (c) 1951 (d) 1964

4) Which prominent producer of aspirin at one time openly marketed heroin as cough medicine?

5) Which Nixon cabinet secretary has five grandmothers?

6) Multiple Choice. The following letter was written by a nine-year-old child. That child later wound up (a) a schizophrenic psychopath (b) a marine biologist (c) President of the United States (d) a cocker spaniel.

My Dear Master,

The two boys that you left me with are very bad to me. Their dog, Jim, is very old and he will never talk or play with me. One Saturday the boys went hunting. Jim and myself went with them. While going through the woods one of the boys tripped (sic) and fell on me. I lost my temper and bit him. He kicked (sic) me in the side and we started on. While we were walking I saw a black round thing in a tree. I hit it with my paw. A swarm of black thing (sic) came out of it. I felt a pain all over. I started to run and as both of my eyes (sic) were swelled shut I fell into a pond. When I got home I was very sore. I wish you would come home right now.

Your good dog,
Richard

7) How Much News Would an Agnew Choose if an Agnew Could Choose News?

2) True. According to Jack Anderson, September 24, 1971, Dr. Joseph Paucio was brought into the Republican National Committee as chief Slovak-American

1) John Connally. According to the Daily Texan (Dec. 12, 1962) the former treasury secretary, now an important Nixon adviser, was student association president at the University of Texas in 1938. Connally supported the election of his friend James Dibrrell as chairman of the school's judiciary council. When defeated, Dibrrell succeeded from the student association and formed the "Student Party," naming himself "Der Fuhrer" of the party, which title he used when he sent Hitler a telegram requesting his support. Connally applauded Dibrrell's split and wrote him a public letter which said in part "...I humbly beseech His Excellency, Der Fuhrer, Dibrrell, to accord me the same assurance and privilege of being numbered among the Steward-Ariens (sic); and to permit me to found Daniel's sacred halls over whose door will be found Danie's immortal quotation, "All hope abandon, who enter here." Connally, leading the flock of Democrats for Nixon, is expected to bedazzle the Jewish community campaigning for its support with his strong pledge of aid for Israel and a whole new repertoire of Eichmann jokes.

3) (a) On May 14, 1945 Captain John Percival, commanding the U. S. Constitution (Old Ironsides"), sailed into Danang Harbor. Upon hearing that a French missionary was imprisoned, he kidnapped five Vietnamese officials, seized three junk, and threatened to destroy the city and fort unless the King of Vietnam released the missionary. Later, Percival sent his troops ashore and killed seventeen men, women, and children, destroyed the fort, and sank many junk, causing more deaths. One week later Old Ironsides tried out its guns on an offshore island, killing and wounding over forty Vietnamese peasants.

Two years later, in 1847, then U. S. President Zachary Taylor, in a letter to the King of Vietnam, apologized for Captain Percival, saying Percival "misbehaved himself." Taylor added that if the Vietnamese didn't forgive and forget and open their doors

We can presume that Nixon shares Mardian's sentiments, as he has appointed Paucio to the advisory council of the Small Business Administration, and has invited him to at least one White House prayer service (September 12, 1971).

4) Bayer. The company introduced heroin in 1898 as a cough-suppressant that did not, according to the full effects of other opiates," according to the Yale Alumni Magazine. One year later, Bayer invented aspirin (acetylated salicylic acid) in its own Bayer laboratories and released it to the public. Heroin continued to be sold on the open market as a cure for morphine addiction until the mid-twenties. Now, of course, heroin is illegal and hasn't been seen in decades.

5) George Romney, secretary of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), a Mormon.

6) (c) Richard Nixon wrote that letter to his mother, as found in Leonard Lurie's excellent book, The Running of Richard Nixon. Nixon's recurrent repetition of the themes contained in this tender epistle can be seen in his "Checkers Speech" and his unfortunately premature declaration in 1962 that the world wouldn't have him "to kick around anymore."

7) See page 84.

1) Joseph P. Kamp. He was a top Nixon adviser before World War II and was a member of the Thule Society, a secret Nazi sect which called its leader "der Fuhrer".

2) True. Republican chairman Robert Dole and Interior Secretary Rogers Morton appointed one of Hitler's leading propagandists to serve the Republican National Committee.

3) Multiple Choice. The United States first committed an act of war against Vietnam in (a) 1845 (b) 1904 (c) 1951 (d) 1964

4) Bayer. The company introduced heroin in 1898 as a cough-suppressant that did not, according to the full effects of other opiates," according to the Yale Alumni Magazine. One year later, Bayer invented aspirin (acetylated salicylic acid) in its own Bayer laboratories and released it to the public. Heroin continued to be sold on the open market as a cure for morphine addiction until the mid-twenties. Now, of course, heroin is illegal and hasn't been seen in decades.

5) George Romney, secretary of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), a Mormon.

6) (c) Richard Nixon wrote that letter to his mother, as found in Leonard Lurie's excellent book, The Running of Richard Nixon. Nixon's recurrent repetition of the themes contained in this tender epistle can be seen in his "Checkers Speech" and his unfortunately premature declaration in 1962 that the world wouldn't have him "to kick around anymore."

7) See page 84.

