

ION/RADIO

TV Highlights

Singer John Davidson begins a summer replacement variety show tonight (8 p.m., Channel 7, Color). Regulars on the series will be French chanteuse Mireille Mathieu and comedian Rich Little.

Tonight's guests are singer Mama Cass Elliott and Ruth Buzzi of "Laugh-In."

Davidson's show-closing songs are "Where Is Love" and "I Am Now."

Other highlights:

7 a.m. (4) Today (Color). American Indian Ernest Benedict discusses touring with a portable classroom to teach at Indian reservations across the country. In the 8:30 a.m. segment, author Edward Luttwak discusses his book, Coup d'Etat.

10 p.m. (7) Dick Cavett Show (Color). Cavett, a most civilized conversationalist, completes the first week of his new thrice-weekly talk show.

The guests are comedienne Dorothy Loudon, the husband-and-wife acting team of Dick Benjamin and Paula Prentiss, racing driver Sterling Moss and the cast of "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," the off Broadway musical.

11:30 p.m. (4) Tonight (Color). Peter Lawford is the substitute host. The guests are author Jacqueline Susann, comedians Marty Allen and Pat Henry and TV essayists on sports Heywood Hale Broun.

Detailed listings of TV movies are published in Sunday's TV CHANNELS.