Dear Gary,

Harold Weisberg informed me today that he had received a letter from Richard Waybright. According to Harold, Waybright states in that letter that Harrison Livingstone is labeling me as the source of information concerning you, Mary Ferrell and Harold.

I want you to know that this statement is totally and absolutely false. The truth is exactly the opposite, and perhaps the reason Harry has tried to use my name as a shield.

Harry has caused me considerable grief and anguish, particularly over the last 3 months. I can only assume that his attitude towards me was prompted by my refusal to work with him on his current book.

I resolved last year to remove myself from any involvement in this case and Harry was one of the first to know. It would appear, based on comments I've received, that shortly after telling Harry of my decision, my name began to be used in conjunction with Harry's current, "investigation."

There is much I could say about this whole affair but that's perhaps better left for another day. Once again, I have performed no research for Livingstone on any subject since the publication of High Treason 2, and specifically none relating to any activities of you, Mary or Harold.

Sincerely,

Mark Crouch
