

Dear Mark,

1/1/92

Because I was sent a xerox copy of this Times story, which is easier for me to use, I enclose it on the chance you did not see it. As you'll see, the Hollywood moguls are now saying what I've been saying all along and told Stone in February.

I write for two other reasons. One is to ask you if you can to please send me anything in the papers up there about the movie. Not the Groden interview for the Sunday, 12/20 Inquirer, which I was sent. Groden ran off at the mouth nicely.

The other is because I think you may have sent to Harry the story in the Delaware County Daily Times of 11/22/91 based on an interview with Groden.

Harry marked the part that refers to me, not by name. The copy he sent is very poor, illegible in some places.

I'd appreciate a legible copy and the full name of the paper.

In fact, I can't make out part that refers to me.

I wrote the paper as soon as I read this.

It has not responded. What I wrote was longer than it could use. My purpose was to inform it and see if they would solicit a response.

In the ads in your area have not yet changed, today's for the movie in the WPPost says it was nominated for three Gold ^{en}Glove awards, one of which is for the screenplay.

Monstrous!

After he knew how wretchedly false Garrison's book was before he started shooting and proceeds just the same, without asking questions at all, he is a monster, not a man.

Hope you had a good Xmas and that the year ahead is good for us all.

Best,

Harold Weisberg
