Dear Mr. Lechuga:

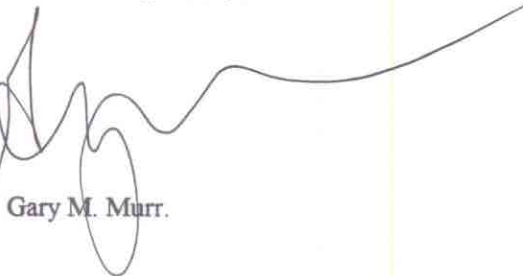

Please excuse this intrusion of a complete stranger, but I write you at the request of a long time friend, Harold Weisberg. As you may or may not know, Mr. Weisberg is a world reknowned researcher/author and just possibly the foremost authority in existence on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

He fears that your mail may or may not be exposed to tampering and thus has asked me to forward you the enclosed correspondence. I believe that they are self-explanatory. In essence Mr. Weisberg request's your permission to quote from a written work of yours which he greatly admires. He in turn has, in the past, forwarded ostensibly to you an example of perhaps his finest work, Post Mortem. Whether you ever received this or not is still not clear.

I know that Mr. Weisberg would greatly appreciate hearing from you if that is at all possible. If you would prefer to communicate or forward anything to Mr. Weisberg through me, please feel free to do so.

I thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter and pass along Mr. Weisberg's greetings.

I remain, respectfully,

Gary M. Murr.
