

Frank Dufour
219 Airole Way
Los Angeles, CA 90077

3/29/95

Dear Mr. Dufour,

I appreciate your comments about Case Open and thank you for them.

We are a mom and pop, very small publisher, and we are not in a position to use credit cards for payment. So I enclose the prices of the book we published.

The others should be available through book stores in your area. If not they can be purchased from The Last Hurrah Bookstore, 937 Memorial Ave., Williamsport, PA 17701.

We do not have the paperback reprint of Frame-Up retitled Martin Luther King, the Assassination, but as you will see we have the original hardback.

There was some confusion about what you refer to as the longer version of Case Open in that book. In time that part will be retyped and will be available for examination at two colleges. Preparing this has not yet been possible for me. I am 82, in impaired health and limited in what I can do. I doubt those institutions will be in a position to xerox so many pages on request. But I do not know, cannot and do not speak for them.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg