NEWS RELEASE

Allan Dale, the number one communicator in the southwest, hosts daily from 9 AM to 1 PM "THE TALK OF SAN ANTONIO".

"THE TALK OF SAN ANTONIO" deals with the known and unknown, the famous and the infamous. Every show has a different subject, but always an issue that will stimulate, excite and absorb the audience.

"THE TALK OF SAN ANTONIO" allows the audience to participate, via the telephones, and Capitol 5-3068 has become a number Radio 12 listeners will dial daily.

A native of South Texas, Dale was reared in San Antonio, attended high school at Harlandale, then the University of Texas. He started his career as a singer and, in the early thirties, he had his own coast-to-coast network radio show.

He became a radio newsman during World War II, returning to Texas after the war to manage two radio stations before joining WOAI eight years ago. He has had 35 years in radio.

Dale believes that this is the greatest nation in the world and, as such, should lead the people of the world to freedom for all people. He also thinks that we sometimes forget who we are and what we stand for and become unsure of the direction we should take. Because of this, he believes everyone should review this great country's history to get a better idea of what it stands for.
