Deer Mary (Cary, Faul).

I had pleased to write you today. Your letter of the 26th errived, with the interesting elips.

Gerner's death, I understand, was from a drug overdose.

I believe Faul and Jim have made somewhat of a study of Civello.

The tapping of Paul's phone is fracinating. I don't know who to suspect.

What it was going to write you about is this: If they keep their words, N.C. is to start copying transcripts for me, if Paul is William, I'll send them to not copying for others. I'll send a list around, so everyone can be selective, not set that they do not went. This time louis made the promise, so I am more inclined to have faith in it. They do not have all transcripts (for example, neither Shaneyfelt nor Regis Kennedy).

And I was going to ask you if you have a file on O'Sulliven. My interest in him has never ended. As my mind gets off COUP (both parts), things become to

I have several Pursion news stories. I indecstand you have some sequeintense with the lenguage. Sould you translate?

Welt until you read both parts of COUP (which will still lack a few corrections of no great significance, a final chapter and the appendix) and see if y ou still think aren and Sue amould read it. So much of my material mas been misueed by others (current cases wonthing on greatly) I generally prefer for the marks not to get around until printed. There are those who deliberately take and has, a setimes opplying what they regard as the banefits of their own great intellects, and those who genuinely forget where they saw it and that they are not supposed to use. I say atill working on some of these tuings, and use can interfers with further successes. Misuse can turn important people off. Further, I wonder if Arch and Sue will really understand the distinction - make between genuine gonservatives and the extremists, the fescists, who mesquerede, colling themselves encarretives end often being so accepted? At least for the moment, I'd prefer that none of this go any further, esp, the books on the autopay and must relates. If you feel otherwise, please late discuss it. I slways face a problem, for on the onem-hand I have the bitterest. experiences and an the other the desire to be of what help I can to the few who are serious and ere doing serious, valuable work. A vary faw. in candor I tell you this includes no one in Los Angeles, where I have ned my own experiences.

I cannot now efford to xerox the final COUF chapter and the appendix, but when I can I'll send to Paul. I dere not part with originals. Appreciate your opinion when you finish, and notes of any errors you may catch.

Do you have the complete Texas file? You have never responded to my offer of the microfilm of that pert in the "ibrary of Congress, which is incomplete.

Thanks for the clips, Sincerely,

4406 Holland Dallas, Texas 75219 January 26, 1970

Dear Harold, Gary & Paul:

I am enclosing a Xerox of several "clippings" from recent Dallas papers which you may be interested in. Joe Civello is the one whose name is wan wrong in the Archives. One page of the document is printed in the volumes but the other page tells about gambling at this Ross and Boll or Ross and San Jacinto place. I'm at the office and I've forgotten the details of the document. But, there was a mark on Lee's map at the spot where the place is... Again, I'm rambling! In the Archives, it has something to do with Jack Ruby. Anyway, poor Joe is dead.

Garner's death did not even warrant the smallest "write-up" other than in the obituary colume. I have clipped both papers and copied both of them.

Paul Rothermel's phone tapping incident is more interesting. The fact that he immediately went to Washington makes it extremely interesting. From close friends of his, I have heard that it was not Hunt that he suspected of being behind it. Harold, maybe you can get more details.

Harold, I am really enjoying Coup. Paul sent me the first part last week. You did a terrific job with it. I won't let anyone see it unless you tell me I may. But, may I let Sue and Arch read it? I won't if you tell me not to.

Sincerely,

mary
