Davis Case Defense Rests Without Calling Defendant

ing the defendant.

fore Friday.

which included his mother, next morning.

SAN JOSE, Calif., May 24 been brought from the Chino | Clutchette, who were found in-(UPI)-The defense in the An- penal institution at the same nocent earlier this year of killgela Davis murder-kidnaping time Drumgo was brought ing a prison guard at Soledad case rested today without call- from San Quentin Prison, but Prison, for which they and Clutchette did not testify. His George Jackson The defense completed its mother, Doris Maxwell, was three days. It called 11 witnesses, including one of the surviving Soledad Brothers, Fleeta Drumgo.

Assistant Attorney General Albert W. Harris Jr. said he did not yet know whether the did not yet know whether the little would present reputately said he had the cell next to the surviving Soledad Brothers, Electa Drumgo.

Assistant Attorney General dead, he had the cell next to James McClain, who was killed in the shooting.

The defense completed its mother, Doris Maxwell, was known as the Soledad Brother, were shown as the Soledad Brother, also in the court.

Drumgo testified that prior did not rule immediately on the admissibility of the order.

The judge excused the jury until Friday and said he hoped the final arguments could begin next Tuesday after the Memorial Day holiday. On could be brought to court be from the Marin County Courthouse and had not heard that Drumgo, dressed in a purple the alleged object of the tak-sport shirt with chains around ing of four hostages from the his waist and legs, several courtroom was freedom for neys on both sides prevented times gave the Black Power the Soledad Brothers until he salute to the filled courtroom, read it in the newspaper the

The defense presented a cer-The other surviving Soledad tified copy of the order of ac-Brother, John Clutchette, had quittal for Drumgo and became known as the Soledad Broth-

Memorial Day holiday. On state would present rebuttal Drumgo said he knew Thursday the attorneys will wittnesses, but that none nothing of any planned escape argue legal matters with the argue legal matters with the judge.

Attorney Leo Branton Jr. said the gag rule imposed more than a year ago on attorhim from discussing the defense decision not to call Miss Davis to the stand.

