State Witnesses Detail Travels Of Miss Davis

SAN JOSE, Calif., May 10 (AP)—Several prosecution witnesses today detailed Angela Davis' whereabouts in the weeks after a bloody 1970 courthouse shooting as the state neared completion of its case.

Witnesses placed Miss Davis with David Poindexter in Chicago eight days after the Aug. 7 Marin County Civic Center escape attempt in which four persons died.

Other witnesses said Poindexter and an attractive black woman were together in Detroit and Miami, but none positively identified the woman as Angela Davis.
