Dear Paul,

Instead of trying to copy these three sheets from Atlanta argues, I am sending them to you. I think I can replace them. If I can, you keep these and make a copy for Gary, please. If I cannot, I'll ask you to make a copy for yourself and return these.

There is in these stories reference to stories not included, which I'll try to get. If I do, I'll send.

If you (all) have any comments, I'd like to hear them. There are inferences here of what I suggested when I heard the backgrounds of his parents and a sort of confirmation of other things.

Best,
