FBI Never Interested 'Cover Up,' Curry Says

The head of the Dallas FBI office, writing the President's commission, says the bureau never was interested in a "cover up" of the fact that Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas prior to the assassination.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall said the statement was made in reply to a letter Marshall wrote to Curry Tuesday, asking that the matter be clarified.

Curry's reply, as released by Marshall, said:

"Shortly after the assassination of President Kennedy, Federal investigative agencies developed information to the effect that the Dallas Police Department was attempting to cover up the fact that Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy.

"This reply is made in response to your letter of Oct. 15, 1964."

In his letter to Curry, Marshall wrote:

"Based upon a letter which you are quoted by news services as
