ireworks Before Senators

By Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson

Mai. Gen. Julius Klein, retired officer in the Illinois Strange Defender National Guard, has sailed serenely back to the United States to face Senate Ethics Committee hearings next week which may not be so serene.

sometimes urbane. The sometimes explosive lobbyist for West German interests scheduled his trip to Europe at the exact time the Senate not plane. While abroad, he gave an interview to Charles Collingwood of CBS which inwhen Klein takes the witness whether he would names of other Senators, besides Tom Dodd, to whom he had contributed, Klein exploded:

"I wouldn't tell you now Senate committee. If they want to know who I contribuwill refuse to answer and I and Defense Departments and wrote Dodd just before he won't take the Fifth Amend-ment. I will say, 'I refuse to ing Klein in this column "see him (Globke) first to ment. I will say, 'I refuse to answer.'

Even while abroad, Klein Even while abroad, Klein come the attorney for Klein your Senate speech of 1960. at the time of the April 21 . . . To refresh your memory, letter, Following the unfavor- attached is a marked copy of port given him on April 21 of able publicity, the Senator your speech, this year by Sen. Jacob Javits asked him to withdraw. "Globke . . ing on my date for Vice President on the Republican ticket.

Javits strangely went to bat for Klein in connection with Klein has made much of the guide you 100 per cent in my hearings were scheduled, and the $75 million arms contract fact that he is a past comthen returned home by boat, the Pentagon was negotiating mander of the Jewish War everything and discuss everywith Klein's client, Rhein-Veterans, and in one of the thing with him." metall, which company had many letters to editors regardialed to pay restitution to dicates there will be fireworks Jewish victims of the slave tioned his religion no less than labor camp it operated under 11 times. Hitler.

give the Senate committee the kissed off cavalierly. It intrade on their religion. But names of other Senators, bevolved one of the great human German leaders, accused in tragedies of this century, the the past of being anti-Semitic, exploitation of Jews as raw considered it an asset to be material by the Nazi indus-represented in the United trialists who actually built States by a Jew, especially one and I surely wouldn't tell the their factories alongside Jew- who could get a Senator close ish crematories.

ted to, they should ask the the few industries which re-Senators or send a round fused to make even token Authored Hitler Decrees payment of restitution. Klein, "I would go to jail in conits agent in the United States, that the man whom Klein ining Jews who had adopted tempt of the Senate before backed it up, while Javits on structed Dodd to see first in German names to return to sembarassing any United States April 21 wrote him a letter of Sermany in April, 1964, was Senator under the present support and again last Sunday on "Face the Nation" Jewish leaders as the author would be smeared, and if this defended Klein. Finally, on of Hitler's first anti-Jewish Globke, name expert of the Inquestion is asked of me I May 16, after an adamant decrees.

might as well tell you today I position by the U.S. State "When in Bonn," Klein 1966, Bell-McClure Syndicate, Inc.

slave camp survivors.

terests-namely his religion.

Itiler. American Jews frown on This was not a matter to be members of their faith who to the White House - Tom Yet Rheinmetall was one of Dodd-to cooperate closely.

The irony is, however, ing Klein in this column, brief you. Dr. Globke is your Rheinmetall paid $600,000 to devoted friend. He will ever be grateful to you for the Javits' brother Ben had be-courageous stand taken in

"Globke . . . is already work-All this highlights one of the reasons why Klein was retained by West German interests—namely his religion. behalf. You can show him

> Yet it was Globke, according to two experts of the Anti-Defamation League, Arnold Forster and Ben Epstein, who made "this official contribution to German racial legislation: 'The Jew is completely alien to us in character and blood ... The Nuremburg laws will form a permanent blockade against further penetration of Jewish blood into the German nation.'

> The book "Destruction of the European Jews," by Raul Hilberg gives further details regarding Globke's part in Hitler's anti-Jewish campaign:

"The revocation order (forc-