

BookWorld 9/25/77
"A powerful exposé... as bizarre as anything to come out of Watergate!"

AGENCY OF FEAR

EDWARD JAY EPSTEIN'S explosive, fully documented report on Nixon's secret blueprint for seizing ultimate power!

"An OUTSTANDING addition to the Nixon literature."—Library Journal

"FASCINATING... The richness of Epstein's research... [makes] AGENCY OF FEAR practically a textbook of responsible journalistic technique."—N.Y. Times Book Review

"Epstein, who established his reputation as an investigative reporter with Inquest... offers a considerable amount of NEW MATERIAL."—The Washington Monthly

"Lays bare Nixon's scenario for... a political coup to seize the power of government. The book merits points for its COOL PROFESSIONALISM."—The Booklist (Starred)

"Exciting research. IMPRESSIVE thesis. An interesting book."—NORMAN MAILER

"Liddy, Ehrlichman, and other familiar faces emerge in an entirely NEW LIGHT."—Publishers Weekly

Just Published / $9.95 from your bookseller

G.P. PUTNAM'S SONS