Dear Harold:

Enclosed is that report I put together a couple years ago on the Ford-Watergate mole, that I spoke of last night.

Also enclosed are a couple background items, including the Conyer's background memo.

After we finished talking last night, I reread Post Mortem until 4 a.m. and was once again very impressed. I had forgotten that the Henry Gonzalez closet bit was so bad. What a man.

Take care,

Dear Mike,

The Conyers memo was not enclosed. I didn't learn this until today.

I wanted to read your analysis when I could pay attention to it. This meant getting all the necessary work on the suits done and then preparing outlines for a number of speeches and seminars at Univ. Wisc. Stevens Point this coming week.

By then I had a mild intestinal virus. it kept me running at both ends all night. When I lay down to read I was weak, tired and dozed off from time to time.

However, I did read it, got most of it, think you put it together well and that nobody really gives a damn among those who might do something.

The signs were clear at the confirmation hearing. In addition, read what is on him in Whitewash IV. There is much more, some perhaps even worse. But I've not been able to generate any interest.

Maybe some day I'll do a book Good Guy. (Wrigley, that is.)

However, as you will learn if you have not, except on crooked dog-catchers there really is no investigative reporting. Little as there is the supply exceeds the demand.

Alas!

Many thanks,
