When the FBI Calls, Everyone Talks

Jack Anderson

WHEN THE FBI's relentless sleuths fix their attention on a culprit, real or imagined, few sources of information are considered too personal or sacred for exploitation.

Neighbors, friends, spouses, building superintendents, college officials, even newspaper reporters plumbed for tidbits of gossip. Surprisingly, most of them bethe presence of a G-man.

Military records, Selective Service records, passport, cus- that Abernathy Internal Revenue files, which the hapless citizen thinks are confidential, are actually wide open to the federal cops.

The FBI has used these sources to dig out strictly personal information about a variety of public figures who have not committed crimes and aren't ever likely to do so.

For example, the FBI wrangled information about black leader Ralph David Abernathy from an intriguing cross section of sources. Abernathy succeeded the martyred Marof the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

sources are the ubiquitous "confidential sources who have furnished reliable information in the past."

newsmen.

Some of the most outrageous charges are based on vestigating Ali's claim that he the most dubious evidence. is a conscientious objector, ical excerpt, "a confidential One entry in Abernathy's file, for example, cites an anonymous "Communist Party functionary" who "described Martin Luther King Jr., as a confirmed Marxist in February,

Credit Consulted

Also consulted was "Mr. come positively garrulous in John A. Ritter, Credit Bureau of Greater Atlanta, Inc.," who solemnly informed the FBI "was emtoms, Social Security and even ployed from 1951 to 1961 as pastor of the First Baptist Church . . . Montgomery, Alabama."

> For information on former world heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali, nee Cassius Clay, the FBI turned to his former wife:

"On June 7, 1966, Sonji Clay was interviewed at her residence. ... She advised that from her personal association with Clay, she knows that the NOI (Nation of Islam, the Black Muslims) controls his boxing career and through tin Luther King, Jr., as head Main Bout, Inc., of New York City, which is owned and operated by the NOI, limits Clay's The most frequently quoted income to 20 per cent of his earnings and the remaining 80 the phone company is tattling per cent is for the NOI.

"She advised that would comply with any direc-This can be anything from tive of the NOI in that he is problems for the federal inves- leased "by our counsel."

In this case the FBI was in-checking accounts. This; however, is hardly suffifrom his wife confidential in-furnished the following inforformation concerning his finances.

When baby doctor Benjamin Spock was speaking out against nuclear warfare in the Company, 15 Broad Street, mid-1960's, the FBI visited New York, N.Y." The "confi-Case Western University in dential source," apparently, Cleveland, where he was was the bank itself. teaching. There they obtained "the personnel file pertaining to Dr. Spock," which was "reviewed on Dec. 23, 1964. . . ."

Such inquiries, of course, serve not only to add bulk to the FBI's files, but also to prejudice a person's employer the United States Serviceagainst him.

Telephone Records

top cops. For information on ing issuance of a subpoena entertainer Harry Belafonte's duces tecum directed to Mr. associates, for example, the FBI consulted "the records of the New York Telephone Company," which were "furnished to Special Agent James M. Anderson by Edward L. Braune."

course, rarely suspects that on him to the FBI at the same Clay time it is collecting his money.

Bank accounts also pose no wiretaps, to disgruntled ex-em- an absolute blind follower of tigators. The file on movie acployees, to accommodating Elijah Muhammad (national tress Jane Fonda, for example, leader of the Black Muslims)." is full of details about her

"On Jan. 4, 1971," says a typsource who has furnished relicient justification for prying able information in the past mation concerning the checking accounts of Jane Fonda at the Morgan Guaranty Trust

The memo went on to list numerous checks Miss Fonda had written to various individuals and groups, including the National Council of Churches ($3,300), the anti-communist Radio Free Europe ($105), and man's Fund ($950).

"The aforementioned information is not to be made pub-Telephone companies lean lic," a notation warns, "except over backwards to help the in a usual proceeding follow-Arthur W. Herbert, Assistant Secretary, Morgan Guaranty Trust Co.

My associate Joseph Spear spoke to Herbert, who denied having released the informa-The telephone customer, of tion to the FBI. "The bank's policy is not to give information out unless subpoened," he said. He could not explain how the FBI got the data except to suggest it might have been re-

@ 1972. United Feature Syndicate