Student Called Agent Provocateur For FBI Is Located in Minneapolis

By Jack Nelson Los Angeler Times

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Sept. 14—A former University of and of concealing his where-Alabama student, accused of abouts. Dean charged that pobeing an agent provocateur for the Federal Bureau of Infor the Federal Bureau of Inleave town and stay out of Alleave town and stay out of Alvestigation, has been located abama, in Minneapolis, where he said The identify "agitators."

the FBI had specifically in-

Dean George

ing arson and other violence loosa police.
hat led to some 150 arrests He began working for the versity last May.

dent during a trial here on an in Ohio, he said. unlawful assembly charge Grimm acknowledged that work figured in the arrest of growing out of the disturb- he had witnessed the burning 13 persons on drug charges in ances, also accused the FBI, of four buildings at the uni-Tuscaloosa.

Grimm unavailable to testify

The Los Angeles Times lohe moved because of death cated Grimm in Minneapolis where he is a bread truck Charles R. Grimm Jr., 21, of driver and his wife Sharon is San Diego, Calif., said he had a dietetic intern at the Univerworked for the FBI as an "undercover political agent" at Both he and his wife, 21, also the university and below the surface of the action of the surface the university and helped a former Alabama student, were arrested during the dis-Grimm denied he was an turbances, which began May 6 and provocateur and said and ended May 18.

Grimm said he expected sevstructed him to stay out of eral warrants to be issued to learn the identity of "agita-trouble." and Jack tion he gathered at the univer-Drake, American Civil Liber-ties Union attokneys, have ac-for the FBI role by an agent cused Grimm of being the who was a friend. He said he hief agitator and of commit- also worked for the Tusca-luring disturbances at the uni- FBI just before the May 4 she felt her life was in danger shooting deaths of four stu- from persons arrested on drug Dean, representing a stu-dents at Kent State University charges on the basis of his in-the Tuscaloosa police and versity and in Tuscaloosa durstate investigators of making ing the disturbances but he denied participating in the arson. Dean accused him of acts that police cited as a basis for declaring unlawful assemblies. The violence included hurling missiles at offi-

> Grimm, interviewed by telephone, said that at the univerdent-faculty coalition. During meetings of the coalition, he said, his role as an undercover agent was to "criticize the university administration for repressive actions" while trying

He and his wife moved to Minneapolis last Grimm said his wife had "opportunities to go to numerous hospitals elsewhere" but wanted to go as far away from the South as possible because vestigations. Grimm said his