'Friends of the FBI' Plan Study gency as Protector of Public

Claiming to have "greater intellectual resources" than teracting what Jay A. Parker, news conference that Con-Congress, a group called Negro president of the Friends of the FBI announced Friends, called "the continuyesterday that it is financing a ing campaign against the FBI ately study the FBI than a pri-$70,000 private study of the most recently evidenced by FBI "as an institution protect the grossly one-sided Princeing the public from militant, ton conference." radical aims."

The study is being conducted by Americans for ficials were among those who tunity to explore the deeper founded as a counterpart to the American Civil Liberties Union. The AELE often supports the government's and the founded as a counterpart to versity to determine, among mation from the FBI than we other things, whether the FBI should combine both criminal parker said his group has no group Union. The AELE often sup-ports the government's posi-tion in criminal investigations and security required to the result of t tion in criminal court cases surveillance. and has been praised by Attorney General John N. Mitchell, representative at Princeton, Edgar Hoover or the FBI."

Effective Law Enforcement, a attended a conference on the questions and Congress isn't originally FBI recently at Princeton Uni- going to get any more inforgress might more approprivate group.

"We can command greater intellectual resources," Civil liberty advocates and said. "Congress doesn't really former Justice Department of- have the means or the oppor-promised the study would not Richard O. Writh, the AELE be "a whitewash of either J.