

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

(40 FR 7439; Appendices C, D, G, and K as amended by 40 FR 29290)

PART 1—DISCLOSURE OF RECORDS

By a notice of proposed rule making appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER for January 16, 1975 (40 FR 2836), an amendment to 31 CFR 1.6 was proposed in order to provide a uniform schedule of fees, applicable to all constituent units of the Department of the Treasury, for search and duplication of records under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552, as amended). The same document gave notice that 31 CFR, Part 1 (relating to public access to records) would be amended to comport with the requirements of Pub. L. 93-502 and would also be made applicable to all constituent units of the Department. This document is such amendment.

In general, these amendments provide for access by the public to information created or maintained by the Department of the Treasury. Specifically, they provide for publication of certain documents in the FEDERAL REGISTER and public inspection of records. They also provide procedures for making a request for records of a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, for appeal of an initial or appellate administrative determination to deny such request, and the schedule of fees for search and duplication of records. The amendments apply to all constituent units of the Department of the Treasury, including the Internal Revenue Service and supersede all inconsistent prior issuances of Bureaus, offices and other constituent units.

These amendments also designate officers of the constituent units of the Department of the Treasury who will make initial determinations as to whether to grant requests for records and those who will make appellate administrative determinations. Initial determinations normally are to be made within 10 working days after the date of the request, and appellate determinations are to be made within 20 working days after the date of the receipt of the appeal. However, under unusual circumstances, an extension of not to exceed 10 days may be invoked. If such an extension is invoked in connection with an initial determination, any unused days of the maximum 10-day extension period may be invoked subsequently in connection with an administrative appeal from the initial determination. These time limits may also be extended by agreement with the requester or by judicial process.

The amendment previously proposed relating to a uniform schedule of fees is adopted with only clarifying revisions suggested by the Department itself.

In addition, the amendments conform provisions relating to the exemptions from disclosure requirements for matters concerning national defense and foreign policy and for investigatory records to changes made by Pub. L. 93-502.

In order to preserve without change the provisions now set forth in 31 CFR 1.8 through 1.11, 31 CFR, Part 1 is divided into Subpart A, Under 5 U.S.C. 552, as amended, applicable to all constituent units of the Department of the Treasury, and Subpart B, Under other provisions, applicable only to specified constituent units.

The amendments made by this document are effective on and after February 19, 1975. Inasmuch as Pub. L. 93-502 requires these regulations to be effective by such date, and since the principal purpose is to comply with and implement the provisions of Pub. L. 93-502, and due to the time constraints involved, the opportunity for public comment prior to adoption is not deemed necessary or practical. Moreover, inasmuch as on the date of submission of these regulations for publication, no comments had been received concerning the revision to 31 CFR 1.6, Fees for Services, such proposed regulations are adopted as part hereof with only minor changes. Nevertheless, with respect to all of these regulations, with the exception of 31 CFR 1.6, interested parties may submit comments by March 20, 1974, addressed to the General Counsel, Department of the Treasury, Washington, D.C. 20220. Any comments so received, together with any comments received after the date of submission for publication of these regulations concerning the amendment to 31 CFR 1.6, will be considered in connection with such further revision of these regulations as may be indicated. Any such comments will be available for public inspection upon request therefor.

Therefore, effective February 19, 1975, Part 1 of Subtitle A of Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations is revised to read as follows:

§ 1.1 Purpose and scope of regulations.

The regulations in this subpart are issued to implement the public information provisions of section 552 of title 5, United States Code, as amended. These regulations apply to all constituent units of the Department of the Treasury, and supersede any regulations on the same subject issued by any constituent unit prior to February 19, 1975, which are inconsistent herewith. Any inconsistency whether actual or apparent, shall be resolved by resort to the regulations in this subpart A. Any reference in this subpart to the Department or its officials, employees, or records shall be deemed to refer also to the consistent units or their officials, employees, or records. In order that interested parties may more readily find them, the constituent units of the Department are hereby authorized to reprint these regulations in their entirety (less any appendices not applicable to the unit in question) in these titles of the Code of Federal Regulations which normally contain regulations applicable to such constituent units. In connection with such republication, constituent units may supplement and implement these regulations with material applicable only to the constituent unit in question, provided such additional material is not inconsistent herewith. In the event of any actual or apparent inconsistency, these Departmental regulations shall govern. Persons interested in the records of a particular constituent unit should, therefore, also consult the Code of Federal Regulations for any rules or regulations promulgated specifically with respect to that constituent unit. (See Appendices to this subpart for cross references.) The head of each unit is hereby also authorized to substitute the officials designated and change the addresses specified in the appendix to this subpart applicable to his unit. The constituent units of the Department of the Treasury for the purposes of this Part are:

For purposes of this subpart, the office of the legal counsel for the constituent units listed in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (h), (i), (j), and (m) are to be considered a part of such constituent unit. Any office, which is now in existence or may hereafter be established, which is not specifically listed or known to be a constituent of any of those listed above, shall be deemed a part of the Office of the Secretary for the purpose of making requests for records under these regulations.

§ 1.2 Information made available.

(a) General. Section 552 of Title 5 of the United States Code provides for access to information and records developed or maintained by Federal agencies. Generally, such section divides agency information into three major categories and provides methods by which each category is to be made available to the public. The three major categories, for which the disclosure requirements of the constituent units of the Department of the Treasury are set forth in this subpart, are as follows:

(1) Information required to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see § 1.3 below);

(2) Information required to be made available for public inspection and copying or, in the alternative, to be published and offered for sale (see § 1.4 below); and

(3) Information required to be made available to any member of the public upon specific request (see § 1.5 below). The provisions of section 552 are intended to assure the right of the public to information. Section 552 is not authority to withhold information from Congress.

(b) Subject only to the exemptions set forth in § 1.2(c) the public generally or any member thereof shall be afforded access to information or records in the possession of any constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury. Such access shall be governed by the regulations in this subpart A and any regulations of a constituent unit implementing or supplementing them.

(c) Exemptions. (1) In general. Under 5 U.S.C. 552(b), the disclosure requirements of section 552(a) do not apply to certain matters which are:

(i) (A) Specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order (See 31 CFR, Part 2);

(ii) Related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;

(iii) Specifically exempted from disclosure by statute;

(iv) Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;

(v) Inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;

(vi) Personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(vii) Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such records would (A) interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) disclose the identity of a confidential source and, in the case of a record compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, confidential information furnished only by the confidential source, (E) disclose investigative techniques and procedures, or (F) endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel;

(viii) Contained in or related to examination, operating or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or

(ix) Geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

(2) The exemptions set forth in paragraph (c)(1) of this Section apply to each of the three categories of information set forth in paragraph (a) of this section.

(3) Segregable portions of records. Any reasonably segregable portion of a record shall be provided to any person, after deletion of the portions which are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b) (see paragraph (c)(1) of this section). The term "reasonably segregable portion" as used in this paragraph means any portion of the record which is not exempt from disclosure by 5 U.S.C. 552 (b) and which after deletion of the exempt material still conveys meaningful and nonmisleading information.

(4) Application of exemptions. Even though an exemption described in paragraph (c)(1) of this section may be fully applicable to a matter in a particular case, a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury may, if not precluded by law, elect under the circumstances of that case not to apply the exemption to such matter. The fact that the exemption is not applied by a constituent unit in that particular case will have no precedential significance as to the application of the exemption to such matter in other cases, but is merely an indication that, in the particular case involved, the constituent unit finds no compelling necessity for applying the exemption to such matter.

§ 1.3 Publication in the Federal Register.

(a) Requirement. Subject to the application of the exemptions described in § 1.2(c) and subject to the limitations provided in paragraph (b) of this section, each constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury is hereby required, in conformance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1), to separately state, publish and maintain current in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the guidance of the public the following information with respect to such constituent unit:

(1) Descriptions of its central and field organization and the established places at which, the persons from whom, and the methods whereby, the public may obtain information, make submittals or requests, or obtain decisions;

(2) Statements of the general course and method by which its functions are channeled and determined, including the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available;

(3) Rules of procedure, descriptions of forms available or the places at which forms may be obtained, and instructions as to the scope and contents of all papers, reports, or examinations;

(4) Substantive rules of general applicability adopted as authorized by law, and statements of general policy or interpretations of general applicability formulated and adopted by the constituent unit; and

(5) Each amendment, revision, or repeal of matters referred to in subparagraphs (1) through (4) of this paragraph.

(b) Limitations. (1) Incorporation by reference in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Matter reasonably available to the class of persons affected thereby, whether in a private or public publication, will be deemed published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for purposes of paragraph (a) of this section when it is incorporated by reference therein with the approval of the Director of the Federal Register. The matter which is incorporated by reference must be set forth in the private or public publication substantially in its entirety and not merely summarized or printed as a synopsis. Matter, the location and scope of which are familiar to only a few persons having a special working knowledge of the activities of the Department of the Treasury, may not be incorporated in the FEDERAL REGISTER by reference. Matter may be incorporated by reference only pursuant to the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1) and 1 CFR, Part 20.

(2) Effect of failure to publish. Except to the extent that a person has actual and timely notice of the terms of any matter referred to in paragraph (a) of this section which is required to be published in the Federal Register, such person is not required in any manner to resort to, or be adversely affected by such matter if it is not so published or is not incorporated by reference therein pursuant to paragraph (b)(1) of this section. Thus, for example, any such matter which imposes an obligation and which is not so published or incorporated by reference will not adversely change or affect a person's rights.

§ 1.4 Public inspection and copying.

(a) In general. Subject to the application of the exemptions described in § 1.2(c) each constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury is hereby required in conformance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2), to make available for public inspection and copying or, in the alternative, to promptly publish and offer for sale the following information with respect to such constituent unit:

(1) Final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, and orders, if such opinions and orders are made in the adjudication of cases;

(2) Those statements of policy and interpretations which have been adopted by the constituent unit but are not published in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

(3) Its administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public.

(b) Indexes. Each constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury is hereby also required, in conformance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2), to maintain and make available for public inspection and copying current indexes identifying any matter described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section which is issued, adopted, or promulgated after July 4, 1967, and which is required to be made available for public inspection or published. In addition, each constituent unit shall promptly publish, quarterly or more frequently, and distribute (by sale or otherwise) copies of each index or supplements thereto unless the head of such unit (or his delegate) determines by order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER that the publication would be unnecessary and impracticable, in which case the constituent unit shall nonetheless provide copies of such index on request at a cost not to exceed the direct cost of duplication.

(c) Effect of failure to publish or make available. No matter, described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section which is required by this paragraph to be made available for public inspection or published, may be relied upon, used, or cited as precedent by the constituent unit against a party, other than an agency, unless that party has actual and timely notice of the terms of such matter or unless the matter has been indexed and either made available for inspection or published, as provided by this paragraph. This paragraph may be interpreted to apply only to matters which have precedential significance. It does not apply to matters which have been made available pursuant to § 1.3.

(d) Deletion of identifying details. To prevent a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury may, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2), delete identifying details contained in any matter described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section before making such matter available for inspection or publishing it. However, in every case where identifying details are so deleted, the justification for the deletion must be explained in writing in an attachment to the document from which the identifying details have been deleted.

(e) Public reading rooms. Each constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury shall make available for inspection and copying, in a reading room or otherwise, the matters described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section which are required by such paragraph (a) to be made available for public inspection or published in the current indexes such matters. Facilities shall be provided whereby a person may inspect the material and obtain copies of that which is shelved. Fees shall not be charged for access to materials, but fees are to be charged in accordance with § 1.6 for copies of material provided to the person. (See the appendices to this subpart for the location of established reading rooms of constituent units of the Department of the Treasury.)

§ 1.5 Specific requests for other records.

(a) In general. Except with respect to the records made available under §§ 1.3 and 1.4, above, but subject to the application of the exemptions described in § 1.2(c), above, each constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, shall, in conformance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(3), upon any request, which is for reasonably described records and conforms in every respect with the rules and procedures of this subpart A, particularly this section, § 1.6 and the applicable appendix to this subpart, make the requested records promptly available to any person. Any request or any appeal from the initial denial of a request which does not comply with the foregoing requirements and those set forth elsewhere in this subpart A, will not be deemed subject to the time constraints of paragraphs (g), (h), and (i) of this section, unless and until amended so as to comply. However, constituent units shall, nevertheless, make every reasonable effort to comply with such request within such time constraints or, in the alternative, promptly advise the requester in what respect the request or appeal is deficient so that it may be resubmitted or amended for consideration in accordance with this subpart. This section applies only to records in being which are in the possession or control of the constituent unit. There is no requirement that records be created or data processed in a format other than required for governmental purposes in order to comply with a request for records.

(b) Requests for records not in control of constituent unit. (1) Where the request is for a record in the possession or under the control of a constituent unit of the Department other than that to which the request was addressed, the request for such record shall immediately be transferred to the appropriate constituent unit and the requester notified to that effect. Such referral shall not be deemed a denial of access within the meaning of these regulations. The constituent unit of the Department to which such referral is made shall treat such request as a new request addressed to it and the time limits for response set forth by paragraph (g) (1) of this section shall commence when the referral is received by the designated office or officer of the constituent unit. Where the request is for a record which is not in the possession or control of any constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, the requester shall be so advised and the request shall be returned to the requester.

(2) Where the record requested was created by a Department or agency other than a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury or has been classified or otherwise restrictively endorsed by such other Department or agency, and a copy thereof is in the possession of a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, such originating or restrictively endorsing Department or agency shall be promptly requested to advise the constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury on the releasability of that record. The request for advice shall also inform the other Department or agency that, in the absence of timely guidance from it, the constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury will proceed to make its own determination in accordance with this subpart A. When it becomes necessary to provide a response to the requester within the time limits set forth in paragraphs (g) (1) and (i) (1) (iii) of this section without the advice of the other department or agency, the constituent unit shall proceed to make its own determination in accordance with this subpart A and advise the requester accordingly. However, where as a result, access to the record is denied under one of the exemptions set forth in § 1.2(c) the requester shall be advised of the right to appeal such denial and may also be advised to make a request for the record directly to the originating Department or agency. When an appeal to a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury results from such procecedure, the originating Department or agency shall again be promptly requested to provide timely advice on the releasability of the records. Nevertheless, the ultimate decision on the appeal of such record shall rest with the designated Department of the Treasury official.

(c) Form of request. In order to be subject to the provisions of this section, a request for records shall—

(1) Be made in writing and signed by the person making the request,

(2) State that it is made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552 or these regulations,

(3) Be addressed to the office or officer of the constituent unit to which the subject matter of the request is of paramount concern, unless the requester is unable to ascertain the appropriate constituent unit, in which event, the request shall be addressed as specified in Appendix A hereto for the Office of the Secretary (See the appendices to this subpart for the office or officer to which requests shall be addressed for each constituent unit),

(4) Reasonably describe the records in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section,

(5) Set forth the address where the person making the request desires to be notified of the determination as to whether the request will be granted,

(6) State whether the requester wishes to inspect the records or desires to have a copy made and furnished without first inspecting them, and

(7) State the firm agreement of the requester to pay the fees for search and duplication ultimately determined in accordance with § 1.6 hereof, or request that such fees be reduced or waived and state the justification for such request (See § 1.6(d) below).

Where the initial request, rather than stating a firm agreement to pay the fees ultimately determined in accordance with § 1.6, places an upper limit on the amount the requester agrees to pay, which upper limit is deemed likely to be lower than the fees estimated to ultimately be due, or where the requester asks for an estimate of the fees to be charged, the requester shall be promptly advised of the estimate of fees due and asked to agree to pay such amount. Where the initial request includes a request for reduction or waiver of fees, the responsible official shall determine whether to grant the request for reduction or waiver in accordance with § 1.6 (d) below and notify the requester of his decision and, if such decision results in the requester being liable for all or part of the fees normally due, ask the requester to agree to pay the amount so determined. The requirements of this paragraph (c) will not be deemed met until the requester has explicitly agreed to pay the fees applicable to his request for records, if any, or has made payment in advance of the fees estimated to be due. In addition, requesters are advised that only requests for records which fully comply with the requirements of this paragraph can be processed in accordance with this section. However, every effort shall be made to comply with the request, including, where appropriate, asking the requester to remedy any defects in his request.

(d) Reasonable description of records.

(1) The request for records must describe the records in reasonably sufficient detail to enable the Department of the Treasury employees who are familiar with the subject area of the request to locate the records without placing an unreasonable burden upon the constituent unit. While no specific formula for a reasonable description of a record can be established, the requirement will generally be satisfied if the requester gives the name, subject matter, and, if known, the date and location of the requested record. However, it is suggested that the person making the request furnish any additional information which will more clearly identify the requested records. Where the request does not reasonably describe the records being sought, the requester shall be afforded an opportunity to refine his request. Such opportunity may, where desirable, involve a conference with knowledgeable Department of the Treasury personnel. The reasonable description requirement shall not be used by officers or employees of the Department of the Treasury as a device for improperly withholding records from the public.

(2) The Department of the Treasury will make every reasonable effort to comply fully with all requests for access to records subject only to any applicable exemption set forth in § 1.2(c). However, in any situation in which it is determined that a request for voluminous records would unduly burden and interfere with the operations of a constituent unit, the person making the request will be asked to be more specific and to narrow the request, and to agree on an orderly procedure for the production of the requested records, in order to satisfy the request without disproportionate adverse effects on agency operations.

(e) Date of Receipt of request. A request for records shall be considered to have been received for purposes of this subpart on the later of the dates on which—

(1) The requirements of paragraph (c) of this section have been satisfied, and, where applicable,

(2) The requester has agreed in writing, by executing a separate contract or otherwise, to pay the fees for search and duplication determined due in accordance with § 1.6, or

(3) The fees have been waived in accordance with § 1.6(d), or

(4) Payment in advance has been received from the requester. Requests for records and any separate agreement to pay, final notification of waiver of fees, or letter transmitting prepayment shall be promptly stamped with the date of receipt or dispatch by the office prescribed in the appropriate appendix. The latest of such stamped dates will be deemed for the purposes of this subpart to be the date of receipt of the request. As soon as the date of receipt has been established as provided above, the requester shall be informed and advised when he may expect a response within the time limits specified in paragraph (g) (1) below, unless extended as provided in paragraph (i) (1) below, and the title of the officer responsible for such response.

(f) Search for record requested. Upon the receipt of a request, search services will be performed by Department of the Treasury employees to identify and locate the requested records. With respect to records maintained in computerized form, a search shall include services functionally analogous to searches for records which are maintained in a conventional form. However, a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury is not required under 5 U.S.C. 552 to tabulate or compile information for the purpose of creating a record.

(g) Initial determination. (1) In general. Initial determinations as to whether to grant requests for records will be made by the officers designated in the appendices to this part. Those determinations will be made and notification thereof mailed within 10 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after the date of receipt of the request, as determined in accordance with paragraph (e) above, unless the designated officer invokes an extension pursuant to paragraph (i) (1) of this section or the requester otherwise agrees to an extension of the 10-day time limitation.

(2) Granting of request. If it is determined that the request is to be granted, and if the person making the request desires a copy of the requested records, a copy of such records shall be mailed to him together with a statement of the fees for search and duplication at the time of the determination or promptly thereafter. In the case of a request for inspection, the requester shall be notified in writing of the determination, when and where the requested records may be inspected, and of the fees involved in complying with the request. In such case, the records shall promptly be made available for inspection at the time and place stated in a manner so as not to interfere with their use by the Department of the Treasury or to exclude other persons from making inspections. In addition, reasonable limitations may be placed on the number of records which may be inspected by a person on any given date. The person making the request will not be allowed to remove the records from the room where inspection is made. If, after making inspection, the person making the request desires copies of all or a portion of the requested records, copies will be furnished to him upon payment of the established fees prescribed by § 1.6.

(3) Denial of request. If it is determined that the request for records should be denied (whether in whole or in part or subject to conditions or exceptions) the person making the request will be so notified by mail. The letter of notification shall specify the city or other location where the requested records are situated (if known), contain a statement of the reasons for not granting the request in full, set forth the name and title or position of the responsible official, advise the person making the request of the right to administrative appeal in accordance with paragraph (h) of this section, and specify the official or office to which such appeal shall be submitted.

(4) Inability to locate records within time limits. Where the records requested cannot be located and evaluated within the initial 10-day period or any extension thereof in accordance with paragraph (i) (1) of this section, the search for the records shall continue, but the requester shall be so notified, and advised that he may consider such notification a denial of access within the meaning of paragraph (3) above, and provided with the address to which an administrative appeal may be addressed. However, the requester may also be invited, in the alternative, to agree to a voluntary extension of time in which to locate the records. Such voluntary extension of time will not constitute a waiver of the requester's right to appeal any denial of access ultimately made or his right to appeal in the event of failure to comply with the time extension granted.

(h) Administrative appeal. At any time within 35 days after the date of the notification described in paragraph (g) of this section or the date of the letter transmitting the last records released, whichever is later, the requester may submit an administrative appeal to the official specified in the appropriate appendix to this subpart whose title and address should also have been included in the initial determination to deny access to the records. The appeal shall—

(1) Be made in writing and signed by the requester,

(2) Be addressed to and mailed or hand delivered, within 35 days of the date of the initial determination, to the office or officer specified in the appropriate appendix to this subpart and also in the initial determination. (See the appendices to this subpart for the address to which appeals made by mail should be addressed.)

(3) Reasonably describe, in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section, the records requested from the denial of access to which an appeal is being taken,

(4) Set forth the address where the requester desires to be notified of the determination on appeal,

(5) Specify the date of the initial request and date of the letter denying the initial request, and

(6) Petition such official to grant the request for records and state any arguments in support thereof.

Appeals shall be promptly stamped with the date of their receipt by the office to which addressed and such stamped date will be deemed to be the date of receipt for all purposes of this subpart. The receipt of the appeal shall be acknowledged by the responsible official and the requester advised of the date of receipt established by the foregoing and when a response is due in accordance with this paragraph. The determination to affirm the initial denial (in whole or in part) or to grant the request for records shall be made and notification of the determination mailed within 20 days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after the date of receipt of the appeal, unless extended pursuant to paragraph (i) (1) of this section. If it is determined that the appeal from the initial denial is to be denied (in whole or in part), the requester shall be notified in writing of the denial, the reasons therefor, the name and title or position of the official responsible for the denial on appeal, and of the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552(a) (4) for judicial review of that determination. If a determination cannot be made within the 20-day period (or any extension thereof pursuant to paragraph (i) (1) of this section) the requester shall be promptly notified in writing that the determination will be made as soon as practicable but that the requester is nonetheless entitled to commence an action in a district court as provided in paragraph (k) of this section. However, the requester may also be invited, in the alternative, to agree to a voluntary extension of time in which to decide the appeal. Such voluntary extension shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the requester ultimately to commence an action in a United States district court.

(i) Time extensions. (1) 10-day extension. In unusual circumstances, the time limitations specified in paragraphs (g) and (h) of this section may be extended by written notice from the official charged with the duty of making the determination to the person making the request or appeal setting forth the reasons for such extension and the date on which the determination is expected to be dispatched. Any extension or extensions of time shall not cumulatively total more than 10 additional working days. (For example, if an extension pursuant to this subparagraph is invoked in connection with an initial determination, any unused days of the extension period may be invoked in connection with the determination on administrative appeal by written notice from the official who is to make the appellate determination. If no extension is sought for the initial determination, an extension of 10 days may be added to the ordinary 20-day period for appellate review.) As used in this paragraph, "unusual circumstances" means, but only to the extent reasonably necessary to the proper processing of the particular request, the following:

(i) The need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments in buildings other than the building in which the office of the official to whom the request is made is located;

(ii) The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request, or

(iii) The need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request or among two or more constituent units within the Department of the Treasury or within a constituent unit thereof (other than the legal staff or the component concerned with public affairs) having substantial subject-matter interest therein. Consultations with personnel of the Department of Justice concerned with requests for records under 5 U.S.C. 552 do not constitute a basis for an extension under this subdivision.

(2) Extension by judicial review. If a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury fails to comply with the time limitations specified in paragraph (g) or (h) of this section and the person making the request initiates a suit in accordance with paragraph (k) of this section, the court in which the suit was initiated may retain jurisdiction and allow the constituent unit additional time to review its records, provided that the constituent unit demonstrates the existence of exceptional circumstances and the exercise of due diligence in responding to the request.

(j) Failure to comply. If a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury fails to comply with the time limitations specified in paragraph (g), (h), or (i) of this section, any person making a request for records shall be deemed to have exhausted his administrative remedies with respect to such request. Accordingly, the person making the request may initiate suit as set forth in paragraph (k) of this section.

(k) Judicial review. If a request for records is denied upon appeal pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section, or if no determination is made within the 10-day or 20-day periods specified in paragraphs (g) and (h) of this section, respectively, together with any extension pursuant to paragraph (i)(1) of this section or by agreement of the requester, the person making the request may commence an action in a United States district court in the district in which he resides, in which his principal place of business is located, in which the records are situated, or in the District of Columbia, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4). Service of process in such an action shall be in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (28 U.S.C., App.) applicable to actions against an agency of the United States. Delivery of process shall be directed to the official specified in the appropriate appendix to this subpart as the official to receive such process.

(1) Proceeding against officer or employee. In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(F), the Civil Service Commission will, upon the issuance of a specified finding by a court, initiate a proceeding to determine whether disciplinary action is warranted against an officer or employee of a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury who was primarily responsible for a withholding of records. The Commission, after investigation and consideration of the evidence submitted, shall submit its findings and recommendations to the head of the constituent unit and the Secretary of the Treasury, and shall send copies of the findings and recommendations to the officer or employee or his representative. For the purposes of this paragraph the officer or employee primarily responsible for withholding records is the officer or employee:

(1) Who, when no response is received within the time limits specified by paragraphs (g), (h), or (i) of this section,

(i) Is identified by title in paragraph (e) of this section as responsible for the initial determinations, or

(ii) Acknowledged the receipt of the appeal as provided in paragraph (h) of this section, unless such acknowledgment identifies another officer or employee as being responsible for the decision; or

(2) Who signed the appellate determination, unless another officer or official is named in such determination as being primarily responsible for the decision.

When the designated deciding official is not, in fact, the person making the decision, because of direction from higher authority, the designated deciding official shall state in the response to the requester that his decision is made by direction and identify the officer or employee who is responsible for such direction. When the officer or employee designated in paragraph (e) of this section as responsible for the initial determination has referred the request to another constituent unit or to another officer or employee, he remains the officer or employee responsible within the meaning of this paragraph until he has notified the requester of such referral and the title of the officer or employee who will be responsible thereafter for the response.

§ 1.6 Fees for services.

(a) In General. (1) This fee schedule is applicable uniformly to all constituent units of the Department of the Treasury and supersedes fees schedules heretofore published by any constituent unit of the Department. The fees indicated are to be charged only for search and duplication and under no circumstances will a fee be charged for determining whether an exemption can or should be asserted, deleting exempt matter being withheld from records to be furnished, or monitoring a requester's inspection of records made available in this manner.

(2) While certain relevant publications which are available for sale through the Government Printing Office will be placed on the shelves of the reading rooms and similar public inspection facilities, such publications will not be available for sale there. Persons desiring to purchase such publications should contact the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. However, copies of pages of such publications on the public inspection facilities' shelves may be obtained at those facilities in accordance with the schedule of fees set forth in paragraph (g) of this section.

(b) When charged. (1) Unless performed without charge, waived or reduced in accordance with paragraphs (c) or (d) of this section, fees shall be charged in accordance with the schedule contained in paragraph (g) of this section for services rendered in responding to requests for records.

(2) Fees may be waived or reduced at the discretion of the official who determines the availability of records, when the record is not located for any reason or when it is determined to be exempt from disclosure.

(c) Services performed without charge. The heads of constituent units or their delegates are authorized to determine, under the rulemaking procedures of 5 U.S.C. 553, which classes of records under their control may be provided to the public without charge, or at a reduced charge.

(d) Waiver or reduction of fees. (1) Fees may be waived or reduced on a case by case basis in accordance with this paragraph by the official who determines the availability of the records, provided such waiver or reduction has been requested in writing. Fees shall be waived or reduced by such official when he determines either that:

(i) The records are being requested by, or on behalf of, an individual who demonstrates in writing under penalty of perjury to the satisfaction of the deciding official that he is indigent and compliance with the request does not constitute an unreasonable burden on the constituent unit of the Department (to demonstrate indigency an individual shall show that he is eligible for Federally aided public assistance designed to supplement income on the basis of financial need, e.g., food stamp program); or

(ii) A waiver or reduction of the fees is in the public interest because furnishing the information primarily benefits the general public.

(2) Normally, no charge should be made for providing records to Federal, state or foreign governments, international governmental organizations, or local governmental agencies or offices thereof in accordance with subdivision (1) (ii) above.

(3) Appeals from denials of requests for waiver or reduction of fees shall be decided in accordance with the criteria set forth in subparagraph (1) above by the official authorized to decide appeals from denials of access to records. Appeals shall be addressed in writing to such official within 35 days of the denial of the initial request for waiver or reduction and shall be decided promptly.

(e) Avoidance of unexpected fees. In order to protect the requester from unexpected fees, all requests for records shall state the agreement of the requester to pay the fees determined in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section or state the amount which the requester has set as an acceptable upper limit he is willing to pay to cover the costs of processing the request. When the fees for processing the request are estimated by the constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury to exceed that limit, or when the requester has failed to state a limit and the costs are estimated to exceed $50.00 and the relevant constituent unit has not then determined to waive or reduce the fees, a notice shall be sent to the requester. This notice shall:

(1) Inform the requester of the estimated costs;

(2) Extend an offer to the requester to confer with personnel of the relevant constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury in an attempt to reformulate the request in a manner which will reduce the fees and still meet the needs of the requester; and

(3) Inform the requester that the running of the time period, within which the relevant constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury is obliged to make a determination on the request, has been tolled pending a reformulation of the request or the receipt of advance payment or an agreement from the requester to bear the estimated costs.

(f) Form of payment. (1) Payment shall be made by check or money order payable to the order of the Treasury of the United States or that relevant constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury.

(2) When the estimated costs exceed $50.00, the requester may be required to enter into a contract for the payment of actual costs determined in accordance with paragraph (g) below, which contract may provide for prepayment of the estimated costs in whole or in part.

(g) Amounts to be charged for specified services. The fees for services performed by the relevant constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury shall be imposed and collected as set forth in this paragraph. Should services other than those described be requested and rendered, appropriate fees shall be established by the head of the relevant constituent unit of the Department, or his delegate, and such fees shall be imposed and collected pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 483a, but subject to the constraints imposed by 5 U.S.C. 552(a) (4) (A).

(1) Duplication. (i) Photocopies, per page up to 8½" x 14"—$0.10 each.

(ii) Photographs, films and other materials—actual cost.

The constituent unit of the Department may furnish the records to be released to a private contractor for copying and shall charge the person requesting the records the actual cost of duplication charged by the private contractor. No fee will be charged where the requester furnishes the supplies and equipment and makes the copies at the government location.

(2) Unpriced printed materials. Other-wise unpriced material, which is available at the location where requested and which does not require duplication in order that copies may be furnished, will be provided at the rate of $0.25 for each twenty-five pages or fraction thereof.

(3) Search Services. (i) The fee charged for services of personnel involved in locating records shall be $3.50 for each hour or fraction thereof.

(ii) Where, because of the nature of the records sought and the manner in which such records are stored, a computer search is required, the fee shall be $3.50 for each hour (or fraction thereof) of personnel time associated with the search plus an amount which reflects the actual costs of extracting the stored information in the format in which it is normally produced, based on computer time and supplies necessary to comply with the request.

(4) Searches requiring travel or transportation. Shipping charges to transport records from one location to another, or for the transportation of an employee to the site of requested records when it is necessary to locate rather than examine the records, shall be at the rate of the actual cost of such shipping or transportation.
