FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover calls the "new left" a conspiracy in which Communists are "deeply imbedded."

Writing in the magazine Christianity Today, Hoover said the new left was "a new kind of conspiracy in our country." Communists, he said, have "deeply imbedded" themselves in the movement, but have not been able to dominate it.

The danger, Hoover wrote; is "that a disciplined, experienced revolutionary organization like the Communist Party will be able to reach into the variegated, at times almost chaotic, new left movement, recruit young people, and then train them into revolutionary cadres."
