

11/23/68

Dear Mr. Fairbanks,

Much as I appreciate people taking the time to write me, I just cannot take the time from the very long working day I put in to read 16 closely-written pages of very small writing. When I do, I will read your letter dated 18 November and mailed the 26th. However, if there is anything urgent in it, please send me a brief note that I'll be able to read rapidly.

I do hope you can understand this. Not only do I not have the time, with all the work I am into, but my eyes also just will not take that kind of concentrated fine use.

Sincerely

18 November 1968

Harold Heisberg
Shaketown, Maryland

Dear Mr. Heisberg:

Please excuse me not typing. I can crowd more into a letter using this method. I am contacting many people aiming to get something started for my own benefit, and I am giving you the general information plus that I am circulating. As far as Hyde is concerned, I have personal knowledge that Garrison's office has investigated him, but there is a fringe area in this matter. In my own interest, I am naturally interested in influences that can be drawn that may be more significant, but which I have to develop to establish an area of common interest; if some of my educated guesswork might interest you in closer contact than it appears to me, I would appreciate it if you would pass it along to the Garrison people.

I have read the New York article, and I take it for granted that the real author of the article was Heisberg. I have noted especially the reference to the "Orthodox Old Catholic Church". Ferris has been described in several places as being associated with, and the description of it as an underground cult with a quasi political message. I am inclined to believe that this description was made with a conscious animus with Heisberg and his Ghost knowing the actual facts. There is at present a movement called the underground church, which is a matter of people in the Roman Catholic and Protestant Churches getting together and holding unauthorized communion services. The movement in question is historically related to the present underground church. The reader of the article, however, would naturally think of the term "underground" in another context, that of an underground movement of anti-Castro revolutionaries, and this was written with deliberate intent I believe to mislead. Again the message was political to a large extent, but it was basically a repetition of the social-liberal statements of various agencies of the National Council of Churches which many people including myself condemn as controversial. It was taken from the platform of Father Duffy's Catholic Church of North American site. I personally was responsible for something getting representation of Red China in the United Nations dropped from it. There has actually never been a group functioning in Louisiana called the Orthodox Old Catholic Church. I am at present Washington Representative of the Occomunal League for Christian Unity. St. Stanley who consecrated Ferris was American Secretary for the League. The group was a federation of small independent churches united with the League, some of which were called Orthodox, others old Catholic, with Duffy's group being under Roman Catholic.

Actually Ferris never had a church in New Orleans. He was consecrated a brother so that he could disrupt everything, then he took his horde of ten aged boys, possibly with some girls to create a slight impression to the Byzantine Rite Liturgy of the Syrian Orthodox Church, and introduced himself to the priest to create the impression that he had a congregation to be part of a plan to be reorganized in the Western Rite deaconry of the Syrian Orthodox church. There are people in New Orleans, however, whom Ferris had hoped to organize in a church. These were people who had been excommunicated from the Roman Catholic Church by Archbishop Romuald for distributing literature claiming a biblical basis for White supremacy on the basis of the Negro being descended from Cain. I understand that the leader of this group Mr. Baillot has a million dollars. I note that a policeman with the same name was part of a staged scene between Oswald and Bergman. One reason why I dissent from the official theories, and believe that Ferris was either a Castro agent, or an adventurer seeking to build something he could try to sell to Castro, is the fact that he apparently was working to bring these people under a Negro archbishop. He knew that Marchenna was a Negro, and I cannot see why he would have done so unless he wanted to blackmail them on Castro's interest. Actually he never got them into a church, since after the signal in Deah-Market, the word about "Negro" Marchenna and Ferris was naturally spread around New Orleans.

Hyde has given me some information to get me off his neck, and I will

2. Have to give you information I have already related, in order to tell what I have not related in context.

I and Hyde were associated with a small religious denomination, the American Catholic Church. Hyde broke communion with the American Catholic Church in May 1961 because of an article written by Stephen Heller, a priest at that time of that church, in California and published in Fate Magazine. An abortive effort followed in which we sought to unite in a synod and federated church organization with Fr. Clarence J. Duffy, Catholic Church of North American Rite, Carl M. Stanley, pro-papal Catholic Church, an East Indian Bishop named P. Elia, Indian Orthodox Church, and Jack S. Martin who lives with Stanley's and Duffy's group at the same time.

Martin had become involved in ecclesiastical matters out of sympathy with the East Indian body. On a mission to India he met the East Indian Archbishop who had succeeded in getting a number of congregations from the Kerala Syriac Orthodox Church which functions under Anglican Bishops. The British Consul was seeking to get the property back for the Anglicans. Martin acted as an emissary for the East Indian archbishop in an arrangement whereby he paid a visit to Stanley so that he could claim to be a mission of an American movement and have the help of the American Consul in keeping the property. Stanley talked Martin into becoming a bishop. Father Duffy was a Roman Catholic priest able to become an Episcopus Vaganus and sought to start his own Rite in the Roman Catholic Church to without incurring ecclesiastical censure due to the canonical manner in which he had been banished from Ireland to the United States. He arranged for his movement to be publicized in the Majority of One, a left wing magazine that supported Castro, and the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Oswald claimed to be identified with.

The cause of everything blowing up were investigations by Ferris and Martin which seemed to indicate that Stanley's orders were non-existent as depending on a consecration performed by mail. These consecrations are frequent in the Episcopi Vaganus world, but the man so consecrated is usually already consecrated by hand, and a manual consecration always follows. It is a matter of enabling a man to file various charters, and saving a man with a small congregation the expense of an extra round trip bus ticket. It was actually a hoax perpetrated by Ferris to discredit Duffy. Duffy was actually a rather conservative old Irish Gentleman, Martin was an associate of Bannister and Bannister, undoubtedly Fred Clegg. Duffy in his files as a dangerous subversive. Ferris a friend of O'Donnell, engaged in anti-Castro work was able to impress Martin since Ferris had studied in a Roman Catholic Seminary. He got Martin to get him into the church and staged the investigations to make it appear that Duffy, who was seeking to start a program among Spanish Americans in cooperation with a Puerto Rican priest named Lingual, was a semi-old man taken in by a diploma mill operator. Duffy had succeeded in getting some publicity in the Prentiss Magazine published by Father Heller who works with Buckley in the National Review, and such would have made it hard for Duffy to get anywhere. Actually Duffy proved, as I later learned, that Stanley's orders were correct, and Stanley acquired considerable prestige by being invited by Cardinal Bea to visit the Vatican.

Martin offered to take out a charter for Hyde for the Society of Dominic Clares of Saint Basil from the state of Louisiana. Martin said Hyde on adopting Basilian Friars as an alternative title I did not like this since we worked under a system of canon law that did not provide for friars. Martin was planning on selling his interest in the detective agency and hoped to franchise the name out to a wine company for tax exempt sale of a brand of liquor, which would have meant considerable revenue for him and others while engaged in religious work. Hyde did me much evil in that he traced my signature as a member of a Board of Directors telling me that he was a corporation sole. He wrote me out of the post of Prior that was rightfully mine, in which I should have had a say in the standards to be met by those affiliating with the group. In June 1962 he then in an unsigned letter, asked for my official opinion as to our negotiating an intercommunion with the Marchonna group, he stating that we would maintain

Our name and independence. Hyde then went to the synod of the Marchenna group, and was voted into it in a manner that completely contradicted my official opinion.

Ferris after the projected federated church blew up, became enemies with Martin. He tried to get into the Canonical Canonry of the Syrian Orthodox Church, and Martin refused to suppress the facts about his son's homosexual conduct with minors. In contesting various probate cases, Ferris contacted Marchenna. Marchenna has been said to have been the proprietor of an establishment known as Dick's parlor barbers across the street from his premises in Newark, New Jersey. Richard Arthur being Dick. Whether or not this is true it shows what manner of man he is. He did, however, have some respectable people among his clergy. He was associated in a word communion with an elderly British translator Doctor Gerard Shelley, the Promote of Caer Glou, who also led a British group under a former Church Army Officer, (Anglican say Evangelist) that was well thought of by Anglicans. The British literature reaching the U.S. made it possible for the Marchenna to have his respectable as well as the Marchenna bunch. In 1962 he had lost his respectability to the Canonical Western Rite cleanness. He had apparently lost his congregation of Puerto Ricans to the Syrian Orthodox and as a result, and was planning to close down in Newark and move to Frankfort, Illinois. He persuaded Hyde at the Synod to change the name of the group to Old Roman Catholic Diocese of Washington, turned over one priest, Thomas A. P. Gilby, then at Charlottesville, Va and now in Wilkes Barre, Penna. to Hyde, and moved to Frankfort. Ferris then applied to be taken into the group. Hyde hesitated to take him for fear of alienating Martin, but he expected Martin to be moving to Washington. He turned the matter over to the Standing Committee of Marchenna's synod, and agreed to Ferris being conditionally reordained at the synod, and to be under Hyde's jurisdiction on the ground that New Orleans is closer to Washington than to Frankfort. The question of deposing me had come up. Hyde was persuaded not to attend the synod as the best way to allow me to fall into oblivion.

What would have happened is this. Ferris would have been conditionally re consecrated to Bishop rather than being reordained as a priest. The canons of the group provided that those voted into the group be reordained or re consecrated in the name of Henry Mathew line emphasized by the group. Hyde would have been deposed for not reporting to the Synod for the required re consecration. Ferris was in a position to know of Hyde's charter since he could have obtained a photo stat from the Louisiana Govt. for a fee, and spotted the traced signatures Hyde had used partly to control the group, and partly to conceal from Martin its small size. He could have filed new names and taken everything owned or leased by Hyde in the name of the Corporation.

I am not in with the theory that it was planned to assassinate the president in September, and bump off Oswald in Mexico and blame him for it. I have had a problem with a go go man in Arlington, Lawrence Smith who has sought to organize an Oratory of Saint Lazarus under the name of Brother Lawrence Gerard. I have seen in a book in the Library (I do not have the reference handy) that Lawrence Smith attached to the American Nazi party of George Lincoln Rockwell was arrested in 1960 or 1961. Bishop Michael Itkin is Jewish, and has told me that Smith has sought to harass him by ordering theological books and charging them to him. Again he has been treated in a New York Mental hospital and it is reasonable to suppose that the parents of a teen aged boy in Brooklyn who wanted to be a Nazi would consider him nuts and seek to have him treated. Hence I believe that the two Lawrence Smiths are the same. In late 1965 it was published in the Star that a Henry Constantine Whitehead would celebrate Christ mass Mass for Smith. Whitehead was reassociated with Marchenna in 1962, and thus in Brooklyn there was a person available to Ferris to staff the group, if he wanted to run it from New Orleans).

4) Martin came to Washington in June and called on Hyde. Hyde then sent Martin a wire to the YMCA excommunicating him for bringing a gun into a monastery. I put him up at my apartment. He was concerned with the fact that he was a friend of Richard Cardinal Cushing and that he had made it possible for Hyde to get an article by the Cardinal published in the little magazine he put out for the Marchenna group. Martin got in touch with the late Archbishop Starkey of another old Roman group and arranged to go to Stankapee and work with a Major Yates to put Marchenna in jail. Mario himself turned out to be a very despicable character. Martin broke up the synod at which Ferrie was present with the Stankapee police. Later a Canon Walt Brown who worked with Marchenna and who apparently brought him to Stankapee, was consecrated a Bishop by the late Abp Blasch, and used the fact that Marchenna had seriously molested the child of a priest, a relative, to run Marchenna out of town and took over the church organization. Marchenna returned to Newark to start over, and dropped both Hyde and Ferrie. Since Marchenna plants people with other groups he could have kept a sub rosa connection with him. Hyde then associated Ferrie in the Society of Domestic Missionaries he was setting up to replace the Society of Domestic Clerics, and at the time the President was assassinated Ferrie was a priest under Hyde's jurisdiction. Hyde feels free from guilt because Ferrie gave the name of a Louisiana Congressman as a reference.

In 1962 when Hyde went to the synod I was suffering severe financial hardship. I had persuaded my wife to agree to sell a home we could not afford, and I was planning to move to the Mount Pleasant area of Washington, and without abandoning my plans for my Holy Cross parish, to go in with Hyde in Ditchling premises that could contain a public Chapel, organize his Holy Apostles' parish, and also operate the equivalent of a non accredited theological Seminary for the Society of Domestic Clerics. I was mailing out a Circular seeking to get a program going while Hyde was at the synod. Hyde returned and made some insulting and irrational criticisms which I had written in my circular which led me to submit my resignation. My motives were basically one considering it unsafe to work under a Charter controlled by Martin. Hyde replied with more insulting criticism, enclosing a vicious document revoking my faculties which he had no right to do since he had never given me any faculties. I moved to the Mount Pleasant area hoping to let my difficulties with Hyde straighten out, and thought that I had done so, when I became seriously ill. Recovering in the hospital, he sent me a letter with more criticism, and I broke completely with him returning to the Episcopal Church in lay communion.

The cause of my difficulties with Hyde now seems as follows. In 1961 after becoming Rector of St. Stephens in the Mt Pleasant area, the Rev. William A. Wentz went down with a group of Clergy to New Orleans on something called a Prayer Pilgrimage and on the way back was put in the pokey in Jackson, Miss for some kind of Civil rights activity. Ferrie seems to have had CIA connections with Guy Bohmster, and Cannister is said to have been one who had looked upon anyone who denied White supremacy to be a Communist fellow traveller. In justice it is necessary to take into consideration that Rap Brown used the facilities of St. Stephens in 1967 due to the fact Brown was connected with having a long standing enjoyment of hospitality, the Clergymen who went down South in 1967 were working with Black people and Cannister could have valid evidence in his files.

The people in Louisiana did not want me doing what I wanted to do. They wanted Hyde to have a monastery with no one in it except himself so that CIA informants representing themselves as prospective students for the priesthood could stay with Hyde for brief periods and use his premises as an observation post to observe Father Wentz. There were other various class. The Spanish American population, and the activities of the Rev. Mr. Reebe at the Unitarian Church.

I have two good reasons for believing this. Hyde wrote my wife that thirty-five young men had written him wanting to study in Washington. I have background, and for a figure that high to appear as once is impossible. I can account for it only on the basis of one third being those who had answered my advertising, one third clergy of other church groups wanting to raid our group, and one third informants. Again Martinet & West Point graduate, and an Osteopathic physician, and can exhibit considerable ~~service~~ ^{service}. In 1963 Norton not only consistently substituted himself for ~~Bannister~~ in any mention he made of Bannister's activities, but he, on talking with the Rev. William A. Wendt on the phone stated, played a role, acting like a complete nut, which makes me believe that since Bannister was alive at that time, he knew ~~what~~ what was going on. Again, the CSD News has reprinted a pamphlet, Hyde published under the name of Miller McDonald when he was starting up again in Georgia in 1966. At the beginning of 1963 when I broke with him, he lost his job in the public relations department of the Episcopal Church related Washington Hospital Center, and got a job as night Clerk in the Holiday Inn near Catholic University. A very elaborate program was set up to make it look like he was directing an extensive program from his premises. Booklets were distributed in Hotel rooms, cigar boxes with icons of the Virgin Mary pasted in the back with Hyde's name and address and the ~~address~~ or name schedule of the nearest Roman Catholic Church were mailed up ~~over~~ ⁱⁿ trees along Virginia Highways, and used Roman Catholic Magazines were picked up and distributed or represented as being distributed in various places including Cuba.

I am inclined to think that the activities in Hankapee were connected with a similar observation post activity. Wendt had been associated with C. Kelmer Myers in Trinity Church, New York. Myers was director of a Spanish American program, and old Father Duffy in telling me that he had left ~~the~~ or the brush off from Trinity was probably referring to Myers. At the period in question Myers was developing an auto sacramental program in Chicago. Brown living in Bradley, Illinois as a self constituted Laobachian with his residence in one man monastery, could well have been backed to provide informants with an observation post for the activities of Myers who was going down into the South and getting much more publicity than Wendt.

Ferris working through Marchenna controlled Wendt, and Hyde who is a man amenable to suggestion, this being the reason he has never gotten anywhere since he automatically makes his church be what people thinking of joining it want, and every time he gets two or more people in his church everything explodes since the church is one thing to one person and something else to somebody else.

Ferris starts getting into the fringe areas where my educated guesses may be more right than I myself may evaluate them.

There is a lawyer in Paris, Illinois, a big man in a small City of ten thousand people. The legal directory states that he was appointed as a Commissioner to set standards of legal ethics in Illinois by the Governor, and thus it is entirely possible that he knows Ferris well who was on the staff of the Warren report. His name is Raymond J. Massie. At the time involved he was associated with the Marchenna group on its general legal Council, and as Father Massie of Paris, Illinois, solicitor (he is later was Bishop Massie, an attorney Bishop of Plainfield, a small suburb of Joliet. I was threatened by Hyde with a law suit by him, in 1963, and at the time, therefore, he was looking after the legal interests of Marchenna. When Marchenna returned to Newark, Massie remained associated with him. The priest whose child Marchenna molested also remained with Marchenna. In 1964 at the end of the year this man was sent to Statesville, North Carolina and planted on the Anglican Orthodox Church of James Parker Dees). This could indicate a ~~sub rosa~~ connection between Ferris and Marchenna since the people Ferris hoped to organize did not join Dees' church in New Orleans, but they have a kind of fellow travelling relationship with the Episcopalians who have joined the Dees group, putting money into the program, and Dees being active made it impossible for Ferris even to get started in the church line. Dees at the time had signed up a bishop in England, Shelley and Marchenna were looking to sign up explaining Marchenna's motives. At the period

6. Massay was still associated with Marchenna as his legal Council. The Year book of Churches from 1965 through 1968 shows Massay as president of a council of protestant churches in Paris affiliated with the Will County Council of Churches with headquarters in Joliet. Since the material in the yearbook of Churches is prepared the year before this appointment was received by Massay while he was still associated with the Marchenna group.

Any interpretation of Massay's activities is only guesswork, I believe that he associated with Marchenna because he planned on opening up a mail order seminary theological Seminary using a mailing address in Plainfield. The Rector of the Episcopal Church in Paris, had a group called the Guild of Saint John Manning, which used to seek to interest High Church Episcopal boys into going into the ministry of the Episcopal Church. I have heard Martin make phone calls to the Bankhead police from my apartment which makes me believe that the stories I hear about Marchenna's activities in Bankhead were true. These were to the effect that Marchenna had a place of worship attended by persons who watched by the police of the Chicago area as known homosexuals, and that it was supported by Colored lesbians who dressed as boys and who begged funds to support the place. Hyde had before I met him advertised in the Homosexual Magazine ONE, and in the year 1963 had been talked into resuming the practice, telling me on the phone that it was for a tea rehabilitation farm for homosexuals in Northern Virginia. In my opinion Massay planned to recruit a homosexual, get him a job in Paris where he was a member of the Mayor's law firm, and have him join the Episcopal Church, offer to tell the Rector out in his paper work, and steal the names and addresses of the High Church boys so that they could be circled and urged to seek refuge in the Marchenna group rather than in the Episcopal Church.

I undoubtedly sound like a nut in my theory as to why a prominent lawyer, considered qualified to set standards of ethics for the legal profession would at the same time be a clergymen and engage in the very kind of shady practices violating every possible standard of ministerial ethics. He is a graduate of a Roman Catholic law school and hence is probably a lapsed Roman Catholic. The Marchenna group is organized on the principle of being under the Pope of Rome without the Pope wanting it so. I do not believe that Massay was drawn to the Marchenna group by that position, but rather, as is the case with Doctor James Albert Pike, anti-Catholic and drawn to Protestant Christianity. The Episcopal Church in Illinois is much higher church and closer to the Roman Catholic church than it is to other parts of the United States, and opposition to the N.C.C. (National Council of Churches) is just as strong as it is among Episcopalians in the Lutheran United States, the High church in Illinois being against it for being Protestant, with the Southerners opposing it for its social pronouncements. In my opinion Massay is very much opposed to the Episcopal Church in Illinois because it is not the type of church he would like to join, whereas if it were like the Episcopal Church in Spain or France, he would join it. As I see it he is an admirer of the National Council of Churches, and figures that if he can get high church boys in Illinois out of the church the parishes will have to get ministers from other parts of the United States, and the fact that his pocket book would benefit would help to keep him from seeing how crooked and dishonest he really is.

These people in the small independent Catholic churches tend to be self-appointed Gestapo men for some element in the larger churches. I am a Gestapo man for the American Church Union, the organization that speaks for High Anglicans. Martin is a Gestapo man for the Vatican. Maria Tritter is one for an element in the Knights of Columbus. St. John is one for the left wing element in the Episcopal Church that is centered in Saint Barbara in the Bourgeois. In my opinion Massay is a Gestapo man for the N.C.C. The odds are that there is no Federation of protestant churches in Paris, Illinois, and that Massay received the appointment so he could have better heads pointed to give him status in corresponding with people active in the N.C.C.

He organized his church in opposition to the N.C.C. and he has picked up his church membership from Episcopalians who have written in to the anti N.C.C. McIntyre broad casts, he having a list down of names which ~~still~~ which his congregation and

7. recruited. Massie seems to have been a party to planting a man to obtain these names from Deen apparently because he wanted to work against Deen in the interest of the N.C.C.

This could possibly affect the matter of Thomas O. P. Gilboy. I have wondered in the past about the letters D.R.E. after his name. He calls himself Doctor Gilboy explaining the letters as Doctor of Religious Education. There is no such degree, but some institutions do award Certificates making people Directors of Religious Education. I have learned the idea that Gilboy was a member of the organization, being given belonged to D.R.E., apparently Directoria Revolucionaria Estudiantes, and used his membership card to make himself a Doctor of Religious Education in the same manner I could do by explaining the C.E. in my self conferred degree of Doctor of Chicken Eating as meaning Christian Education. It could be exactly the other way around. There were probably Cuban students at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville. If Massie had taken a Charter from the State of Illinois, he could at associated with Marchenna given him a Certificate of Doctor of Religious Education Director of Religious Education, and of course Gilboy could easily have gotten such a Certificate from many places. Massie actually would not have needed a Charter. Paulic who was a legitimate person in Canada who had associated with Marchenna, and then cooperated with Sturkey, had a class of students at some residential seminary in Hamilton, Ontario, and Massie could have arranged with that institution to give him an agency for extension work. Under such conditions, I believe I could make Gilboy in contacting Cubans represent himself as belonging to the Cuban D.R.E. Beringuer had some kind of connection with Kelly James Hargis, who is anti N.C.C. at the time Doctor Mackay was very active in the N.C.C. urging recognition of Cuba, and advocating that the Marx-Leninism of Castro be accepted as the will of God for Cuba. This would possibly that both Gilboy and Massie were working together as agents for men for the N.C.C. The fact that Ferrius more than possibly was working with the Massie and Gilboy would indicate that Ferrius himself was acting as a N.C.C. informant. This is entirely compatible with Ferrius being a G.I.A informant since such anti N.C.C. people as McEntyre and Hargis are extremely hostile to John Foster Dulles who took up the N.C.C. as a hobby, and Allen Dulles is John Foster Dulles brother. This does not support so much the idea of Ferrius being a Castro agent, but does support the idea of him being an unscrupulous adventurer hoping to sell something to Castro. My contacts with him were few, but the impression I had of him was the impression I had of him that he was a man with a phony PhD degree, and his knowledge that I took it for granted that such was the case. I have only given work to him, but I imagine that he got his degree from the Albert Schweitzer Institute which would indicate that he was in touch with Oswald. Earl Anglin James was the man alleged to have recruited Billot who co-nominated Stanley by mail. James had an operation where he has a hospital in Nigeria, and acts as a man missionary society, raising funds for the hospital, and keeping most of the cash in his head. In his program however, he had the backing of Doctor Albert Schweitzer. All I know about the institution that gave Ferrius his degree is that it is a reputable residential institution in Europe with high academic standards which however will give anybody any kind of letters they want after their name if they make a donation. It just blinks to reason that that type of institution would be the type that would get Doctor Schweitzer to franchise the use of his name. It is a fairly easy matter to back down since the degrees are secured through an agency that runs a small ad in Popular Mechanics magazine.

The fact that Gilboy is still associated with Hyde's would indicate that he is still in touch with Massie if my evaluation of Massie is correct. He was at my latest knowledge planning on Hyde claiming the title of Archbishop of Washington, and being consecrated Bishop of New Hope, a suburb half way between Toronto, New Jersey. He is supposed to be Director of Religious Education for Hyde's work in Georgia and as he was in 1963 for Hyde's program in which I was kept from setting up a working Sunday School. He has consistently in the letters I have exchanged with him refused from saying anything that could show he

2. ~~knows anything about religious education~~ * The odds are that the society new hope is planned along the same lines as the course of Plainfield, namely it will be a mail drop with mail received in Newhope forwarded to Wadsworth. Hyde has a Mission house in Elberton where his relatives answer the phone, while he works in Athens. There are probably Cuban students at the University of Georgia. The whole idea of being a Director of Religious Education for a group with no Sunday Schools, comes in with Gilboy wanting to visit Georgia occasionally, and convey the impression to students in Athens that is was associated with the Directors Revolucionario Estudiantes, and this fits in more with a desire to give information to the National Council of Churches than with a desire to work with anti-Castro Cubans. If the gang is now functioning that functioned in 1963, I do not believe that it is now connected with the CIA. However the desire of the CIA to cover up means that the outfit would continue to function. The picture I have is that the whole thing started in the fifties when people started getting interested in Flying Saucers. Pioneers then started out by misrepresenting themselves as working to suppress knowledge of Flying Saucers for the CIA in order to blackmail some evasive people, and it ended up with the phones actually giving information to the CIA, and the thing will keep on going. If the people who assassinated President Kennedy also assassinated Doctor Martin Luther King, the idea of Hyde having a Mission House in Elberton where people could pass themselves off as prospective students for the ministry seems to fit in.

I have wondered about Gilboy's counselling ministry, by assuming that he is seeking to provide the Episcopal Vagabond with a counselling faculty. For He is not seeking to offer the counselling people in this field can make a go at, Philosophical Counselling. There is no way such a thing as offering counselling in employment, marital problems etc in a world of small Churches where the congregations are composed of people who also belong to big Churches, that can provide such services. This is especially so in the case of a man associated with Hyde who is well known all over the United States among the small number of people interested in Episcopal Vagabond as the most incompetent Bishop of the lot. In 1965 there was an advertisement in Date magazine in which an inter-faith counselling ministry were selling records of the Ave Maria to build an inter-faith Chapel to Our Lady of Fatima, I believe that this, or something similar is Gilboy's operation. He could franchise the use of the name to a record store to sell records by mail, and then use the list of names of those buying the records to collect funds to support the ministry. Gilboy talks an ecumenical line, and it is entirely feasible to suspect Massie of working with him, since it would not now be possible to run a mail order business, and an inter-faith counselling ministry would serve a similar function.

In 1965 I learned of Massie's address and wrote him suggesting that he join the group I have been trying to organize as its general legal council, and try to get his hands on some of the assets of the Marchenna group in order to compensate me for the damage it had done me, I suggesting that possibly he was not a bishop, but an honest man worthy to answer a call to the ministry, and caught in a bind. I did not know of him being listed in the year-book of Churches at the time, since I'd spotted the listing when looking up information for something else.

In order to protect myself from the accusation of seeking to black mail him, I sent blind copies to the Illinois bar association, the Parochial newspaper, the Episcopal Minutes and the Roman Catholic Priest. The bar association returned my letter for my files with a nice letter covering it, so it would be evidence that I was not seeking to black mail Massie. The letter Massie wrote me was filthy. I had notified Massie in advance to a point and so that if he had been misrepresented as a clergymen, he would have had a way out. He wrote me that he was not a bishop, that he was not the Ethical Legal Council for any church sect or religious group, and that he knew nothing of the matters discussed in my letter. In his third connection he was definitely lying, as he had undoubtedly made his first two statements knowing that he had

I dropped out of the group after Deen had caught the plant and put him out of the church in Statesville. If he knew nothing, he had no right to be superintendent and insolent. He went on to accuse me of seeking to black mail him although I said in plain English that he did not have to associate with me & having my respect, that all he had to do was drop Murchison and connect with some respectable group. He maliciously insulted me by accusing ~~of~~ me of acting out of malice, and ended up by stating that if he heard anything more out of me he would take action in the courts to stop it against me.

I cannot stand people who are completely duty rotten and no good. When people kick me in the pants, I kick them back, but I take time and wait until they won't be expecting it. I am planning on writing him with copies to the same people, stating that I made a protest of association, that I am forced to notify him that I am withdrawing the protest since he does not meet the standards of my group for Clergymen, and that I am blacklisting him, and will not have relations with any group that refuse to treat him as a clergymen deposed for reasons affecting his moral character. I am corresponding with people in Illinois, hoping I can find some attorney who will take an interest in the matter as a hobby, so that I can give him papers so that he can actually proceed against me in the Courts of Illinois, so that I can put my point over.

It seems to be the general received opinion that the C.I.A. is behind the organized attempt to make it appear that only Lee Harvey Oswald was involved in the assassination. In this matter I dissent, although the C.I.A. is probably involved. However, to my personal knowledge the N.O.C. is involved in the matter more so than the C.I.A. This is involved in two ways. Frederick W. Fleming while ~~being~~ ^{Secretary} of Health Education and Welfare, was very active in his free time in denominational matters in Washington, and became president of the N.C.C. after his term of office expired. Ferrie, as a cover for his own activities sought to get H.E.W. to start a attack court against Stanley as a diploma mill operator, probably wishing to involve others in it such as Bellotti, James of Canada, Rogers of New York etc. One man active in the Anti-NCC organization of Doctor Carl McIntyre has been arrested by Garrison and released by Reagan. It is entirely possible for Ferrie to have been involved with this man, since before Martin and Ferrie became enemies Martin did register the group he was seeking to get organized with the American Council of Abortion Churches, and Ferrie could easily have come into contact with him. The odds are that Ferrie was seeking to inform on the ~~President~~-NCC people to the NCC. The picture was very highly complicated, since people were using their own initiative in seeking to associate with Father Duffy, and were all going in different directions. Ferrie wanted to get in the Syrian Orthodox Western Rite Deaconry. The Syrian Orthodox Church was the first Orthodox church to associate with the N.C.C., and Archbishop Basile had been in Louisville and had attacked Stanley. It him was corroborated by Stanley the same day as St. Stephen Duffy. He was trying to get in with Duffy and St. Stephen was for the N.C.C. At the same time people connected with both the N.C.C. and the W.C.C. (World Council of Churches) were wondering why ~~the~~ a night watchman in Louisville, Kentucky was able to collect money from congregations of a sizeable church in Indiana. People interested primarily in law enforcement would have a hard time realizing the complicated situation that existed. Martin told me in 1963 that the N.C.C. had looked into things. It is impossible for Doctor Fleming not to have been a connecting link between Ferries' activities and the N.C.C.

Later after the synod at Waukegan was broken up Martin and Morris Luther came to Washington, broke into a meeting of the Washington Federation of Churches and addressed it about various problems. This is of course not part of the N.C.C. but those active in it were active in the N.C.C. At this period it was planned to make Paul Moore, Dr. Bishop Suffragan of Washington and have him direct the Mississippi Delta Ministry of the N.C.C. with Wendell Smith in charge on the church politics involved. Martin made numerous phone calls to Washington papers trying to get publicity that would discredit Hyde. I was a member of St. Stephens and keeping away there. I despised Hyde but newspapers publicly stereotyping him would discredit me as his former official, and I knew that the Episcopal Church did not want him discredited either to ~~the~~ dis-

¹⁰ used to have having had a servitude job with a church related hospital - Bill McRae of the post is active with Saint Stephens, and there was editor reporter at the time active in the parish. The diocesan press relations department was using them, and they were keeping posted on what was going on. Since the same people were in contact with Martin, who were publicizing Moore and the N.C.C., the result was a very bad press for Garrison when the story broke in the Washington papers.

The late president was a hero to Negroes in the area where the Mississippi Delta ministry operated. I am convinced that this program was a blunder, since those operating it failed to realize that there were Ministers in the South who were sometimes conservative and sometimes fundamentalist who would have been willing to endorse Negroes having Civil Rights, but who would be alienated by Northern disseminating radical theological views. A man of the mentality of Paul Moore, who would allow himself to be quoted in the Washingtonian that the Virgin birth was "for grabs" is not the man to direct a program in the Bible belt. Whether they consciously planned it, or more probably were unconsciously motivated, the people involved did not want to see Southern white men identified to Negroes as bringing those assassinating our late president to justice.

The more I bring things to my recollection in seeking points of identity of interest with other people, the more it comes back to me that the NCC was connected with this matter before the assassination. Higher above all people is the man responsible for the suppression pattern. I don't have the material handy in Ramparts or Slab boy that gives the history of Adelbert Cannon, but if he was a Govt Lawyer in Washington, he could have had social contact with those interested in Church affairs, and been conditioned to act in the interest of the liberal establishment that functions in Washington. This could easily have been helped by Drancy involved in Church affairs with Fertile, and influencing things through Jenner.

I have detailed the above, knowing that my own evaluation of myself as a bigoted liberal might appear others to indicate other things to those who know what I do not know.

I will now shift to another track. There is at least one man active in claiming that the Illuminati plotted the assassination of the late President. There actually is an organization claiming to be the Illuminati organized by Adam Weishaupt, and it is definitely connected with the assassination of the late President. It is actually something of a racket. It was called the Illuminati up to 1960, changed its name to the Brother hood of the Pleroma, and does not conceal its old name, since it sells lessons in religious mysticism copied from other peoples stuff at a high price, and they are able to sell lessons to some people who believe they have stumbled on something subversive, and join up in order to investigate it.

The way it is certainly related to the Assassination is this. The leader of this group is a homosexual resident in England, and the group is directed in the United States by Stephen A. Huller, who wrote the article leading to Hyde breaking communion with the American Catholic Church.

The homosexual was consecrated a Bishop by Doctor James de Wilmett Newman. (Mrs Bergius) who has been widely attacked in England for being a diploma mill operator. The late Archibishop Wallis was of the erroneous opinion that Carl G. Stanley was associated with Newman and Palatini (these people in England with whom we shall nothing to do). If Fertile as a cover for his own activities was working to have H.E.W. launch a witch hunt similar to one the British Government conducted, he being well versed in this field due to his investigation leading him to secure the best possible phony degree. He knew about Doctor Wallis' incorrect opinion from me, and also knew about de Palatini being a homosexual, and since he was homosexual of the worst possible type, he knew about my approach to homosexuality, and worked consciously against me.

At the time I mailed out my carbon circulars, Huller received a copy since he had at least one friend among my advertising. I had mentioned St.kin, and Huller sent along the copy to St.kin hoping to make trouble for me. St.kin sent copies to Marchenna as well as to Huller. He gets carried away when he sees people, and so does very loosely, and seemed to admit implicitly things which Hyde, Marchenna and others had told me about him, of which

It actually he was innocent. I believe definitely that Ferrie in setting up Oswald as a patsy also set up St. John as a patsy, knowing of my opinion of St. John, and that I would hunt him and seek to accuse him of complicity in such a plot. I am confident that Marchenias copies found their way into H. J. Ferrie's hands and entered into setting up St. John along with Oswald. The fact that St. John was at that time a friend of Hoeller, and Ferrie knew that I had sought to have Hoeller deposed because I believed quite rightly that he was working for the Illuminati entered into it.

There is another way that Hoeller enters into things relating to the assassination, but probably as a matter of creating confusion. Archbishop Propheta of the Bronx has a very loosely organized Orthodox church. He is a friend of Ross who edits El Tiempo, whom you have mentioned. Propheta also has an anti-Communist organization, and a discount banner in which he offers discounts to members of store front churches. He has a man named Rock he associated with him in the Los Angeles area. In 1965 Martin had become friends again with Stanley Martin taking the Primitive Catholic Church that Stanley had been with, and having an intercommunion with Stanley's New group. Propheta and a Negro Archbishop named Cragg were working together, and Stanley was in the group with them. I am on friendly terms with Cragg who is not now with Propheta but have not contacted him lately because Maria Viteri is with him, and I consider Viteri no good. In 1965 Hoeller had been deposed by Archbishop Haile, and came out in the open as apostolic legate of the Companie for Richard de Palatine, and also secured appointment with a Knights of Malta group which at that time functioned in Propheta's church through its being in communion with the Primitive Catholic Church. A Knights of Malta group is somewhat hard to explain, but it boils down to this. The archbishop of a small independent church is sovereign Grand Prelate of the Knights of Malta group, and the group that sign intercommunion papers with him have their Bishops identified as belonging to the Knights of Malta, so they can appear in the literature of the home church as being part of a single communion with the Bronx Archbishop. If ~~accordance~~ ~~accordance~~ ~~accordance~~ ~~accordance~~ wants to start up a church and be a Bishop, he will join the Knights of Malta group, and the Archbishop or Prelate, having a charter from the archbishop will then be available to consecrate him.

Hoeller left St. John and Father Duffy became Bishop by joining up with the Knights of Malta group of Archbishop D'Aschaffenburg, for which Stanley had papers. Duffy should have a Society of Saint Ignatius, and he's incorporated into the Order of Saint John, and has the Knights of Malta being the same order of Saint John, and the Catholic Church of North America functioned with Stanley and Martin belonging to it ~~as~~ through being members of the order of Saint John and at the same time belonging to the Primitive Catholic Church.

Hoeller seems to have secured his appointment to this Knights of Malta group for three reasons. He wanted to appear publicly under the auspices of something less static than de Palatine's group. Hoeller probably hoped to get the support of such of Father Duffy's followers as existed by cloaking himself with Duffy's ~~under~~ group Newman Catholic group. De Palatine was originally identified with Newman College which used the degree conferring facilities of American Newman long ago dropped Palatine. D'Aschaffenburg had agreed to offer sanction to the same act of the East Indian Port. The Garrison issued his degrees under Hoeller probably wished to represent that he could offer degrees to those who bought lessons from the de Palatine brotherhood.

The Knights of Malta group is not now functioning in Propheta's church close to it having ~~about~~ a fluctuating membership, and I do not believe that Hoeller and his clergy are putting the letters Q&S after their name. Hoeller last year represented that a Bishop Gregory of Long Beach of Propheta's church took part in his consecration at the hands of de Palatine. However, he does not claim Propheta apostolic succession, and this was probably a cover up to conceal the fact that he is not now connected with that church.

The situation is, however, unfortunate. To my knowledge Martin and Propheta to have got information on St. John to give to Garrison. With some people believing the Illuminati assassinated the President, and with Propheta in closely with Ross interested in being involved into the ~~fact~~ Propheta is going to be somewhat reluctant to let ~~fact~~ ~~fact~~ Hoeller getting his movement to sanction the Illuminati come out.

12. There are several aspects about Hoeller, in which I can draw in - Kosciusko, that possibly could be more factual than I would myself consider them.

"There is one thing that can be considered very far-fetched an article appeared in the October 1963 issue of the magazine, Exploring the Unknown, reported written by Hoeller, claiming that the American Catholic Church taught the same thing as the Palatine Church, and going to Palatine free advertising for a lecture tour planned for November 1963. It was written at the time Hoeller around my apartment, by claiming to me that I was never a clergymen in his Church. It was on the stands in September. If it had turned out that the President had been assassinated in September, I would have been two blocks away from the place where those story at would be staying, and I would be going out of my way to blame Hoeller and Etkin. It is probably the best fantasy to assume that this was planned, but fantastic things can sometimes be true.

Another thing that can possibly be true, than I might imagine is this. Either late in 1964 or early in 1965 a man called me on the phone and said that he was Senator Robert Kennedy and that Hyde had complained that I had said he was an imposter, and asking if I would call before a Committee. I soon made the mistake of the kind of not asking him to hang up so that I could dial him back.
Hence at the time I took it for granted that Hyde had got a friend to talk through his nose, in order to scare me. Anybody can sound like the late Senator Kennedy. However, am inclined to believe at present that he really was the Senator, due to the fact that he said that Mr. John had said to put me in jail. I did not know at the time that the people in the FBI call J. Edgar Hoover, John. Therefore, really was Senator Kennedy, he was not working to suppress the facts.
Stephen A. Hoeller was a lecturer for the Theosophical Society.
This organization in spite of the way it is referred to is actually a good and respectable organization for the study of Comparative Religion. Hoeller had a following of younger people who were interested in the Theosophical Society and at present wants to get them in the "Illuminati" as being more to his pecuniary advantage. There has been a somewhat bad press given to the Theosophists by time as a result of them asking for Theosophical books in jail. The idea that the stand College professors, university school teachers and others of like nature that make up the Theosophists were engaged in plotting the assassination of Senator Kennedy is rather absurd. Their belief, however, and the fact that Sirhan was in contact with Hoeller and his gang.

Hoeller has a church organization in California that is spurious by any standard including those of churches unquestionably labelled spurious by some English writers.
The American Catholic Church. Hoeller was with once had close relations with an Arabic language church organized in the Hollywood area by an Archibishop Greely and Hoeller would know of this movement a priest who can speak Arabic can get a good seat to a bunch of phonies. A man who speaks Arabic dressing in clericals and looking at Lebanon and calling on them, will have them give him money as a matter of routine. It is naturally possible for Hoeller's gang to be in touch with Sirhan aspiring to get him to be a priest, and they are certainly more likely to have interested Sirhan in reading Theosophical books than stand old ladies. If Hoeller was involved with Sirhan, then Hoeller could have been more involved with Terrie. It is only reasonable to suppose that Terrie interested in being friends with members of the John Birch Society would seek contact with a group claiming to be the Illuminati, and since the group is actually to neo-Nazi type organization, cooperate with it.

Again the young man, Lawrence Smith's could be or have been working in this area for Hoeller, and again not. I know of two Sister of Malta groups, Shelly having one under a Col. Pickel in Shushenny, Penn., and B'ashmeleth having another. Their name Ukrainian Old Catholic Church was given in the Star, a star name of the denomination the name being an absurdly since Old Catholics are Western church organizations, and Ukrainians are entirely Eastern in their religion. This, however, could be an unintelligent description of Protestant western pite congregations,

13 since Propheta is a Ukrainian. All Smith would tell me, etc. That he had a church that it was orthodox, and that his church had a language. The fact that he puts the letters OS after his name does indicate that he belongs to an Knights of Malta group, whether or not he was associated with Holler, and trying to get a group of people together to study Holler's lessons is just a matter of guess work. Although Holler's group claims to perpetuate the Illuminati condemned by the John Birch Society as the fore runner of communism, its literature is also slanted to appeal to those on the right, namely that it is on the side of the "white powers" working against the "black powers" seeking to dominate the world through Russia and China.

I will get back on the track and give a chronological account. The brotherhood of the Pleroma, originally called the Brotherhood of the Illuminati quantities in connection with an alleged church called the Pre-Nicene Catholic Church which was for a time called the pre-Nicene Greek Catholic church to distinguish it from at least one other group with the same name. There enters to some extent into the belief of the late archbishop Nolle. Belief that Stanley was connected with the group in question, since unknown to me at the time I was with that church was the fact that a group with pre-Nicene in its name that was rather conservative had split off from the American Catholic Church with Stanley signing intercommunion papers with it. The real name of Richard du de Palatine whom I will hereafter call the phony Duke is apparently Ronald Powell, a priest in Australia of the Theosophical Liberal Catholic Church who came to England and secured his so called title of nobility from an Italian who had just been deposed by one of the small independent Catholic groups of England, and who later was sent to jail by the Italian Government for claiming to be a Prince, and selling phony titles of nobility. He represented himself as an ex-priest who had been allowed to read ~~the~~ suppressed writings of Church Fathers, and was consecrated a Bishop in 1953 by ~~the~~ Georges (Doctor James de Wilmot Newman) ranking prelate of the ~~largest~~ Episcopal Anglican Church in England, actually a rather loose federation with a fluctuating membership.

The phony duke from the beginning thought in terms of getting a following in the United States. He originally cultivated a Methodist minister who had concentrated in the Episcopal Church, and who had become the editor of a new Thought magazine. He put him in touch with the late Bishop Hampton of the Liberal Catholic Church, who consecrated him with the late archbishop Nolle assisting. The Liberal Catholic Church founded by Theosophists is rather strong in the Los Angeles, and since it split up into two good sized groups and many small ones, with the body deposed by somebody there are many people ordained in this church running around who are responsible to no body. The phony duke lined up a group of these people, hoping to get them into the Methodist ministers church and take it over. The Methodist minister believed that some of them burned her church down.

The phony duke visited the United States in 1960 for a lecture tour when he met as Holler. Holler worked closely with the priests the phony duke had lined up. The archbishop Nolle had believed that he had received a promising young man from this clutches when he ordained them. After he came out in the open as apostolic delegate for the Americas he took them as his clergy. The phony duke became wealthy due to his talents after he returned to England, and because his agent spoke with him and began circulating extracts from his correspondence.

The teachings of the phony duke's church and brotherhood is that the real founder of Christianity was an Essene who lived around a hundred years before the time of the Gospels, and that the four gospels are an allegory describing under the life of a mythical figure a process whereby the soul treated pantomatically as a spark of the deity imprisoned in the bonds controlling the five organs, which by charity is transmuted into a mystical light representing the soul reunited with the God head. For this system the orthodox doctrine of the Incarnation is represented as meaning that the phony duke has made himself both God and man, and apostolic succession and the Eucharist have their place in that it is taught that the phony duke through being consecrated a Bishop in the apostolic succession has the ability to make his externalized soul present for the Eucharistic celebrated by the Bishop and priesthood giving their ordination and consecration from him.

The phony duke is a homosexual and homosexuality entered 14 enters into the system of false mysticism he offers for sale.

In 1960 John had secured the part of Doctor Chen in the 1960 British musical, "I lowered sun song." He always spent the night with John before lecturing in London. He was bringing David with him to supply the energy he needed, and The Devil of the night always had another servant working with him as a helper, and such was needed to keep the body from being worn out in the work of producing the mystical light of the Lazar.

I have tended to believe that Stephen A. Hoeller was either a fool who took the Duke seriously, or a knave who swindled a small church in order to pick up something from the wreckage. Actually he is neither, but as a selfish man interested only in his image in the eyes of others, and with no realization that other people have moral rights, and which he is a cad and a sinner, and also a crook, although he is so wrapped up in his image that he probably does not realize that he is a crook.

He was an inmate of a Trappist Monastery in Astoria, the abbott of which had written a Standard Roman Catholic book, occultism in the light of Catholic Theology, with him working for the abbott as a ghost.
He came to Hollywood and used the fact that his name was mentioned in the book to try to gain an appointment as a lecturer for the Theosophical Society. He picked up a large personal following among young people interested in Theosophy. He found archbishop Walle a very old man who could be counted on account having a church with few clergy and fewer communicants. He sought orders from the old Archbishop because he believed that he could bring his following into the church and then when the old man died he could make hisself prominent by taking being in a position to take his following out, leaving the church without members if he it did not do what he wanted. There is another aspect to this besides a young man wanting an impressive title. The late archbishop Walle had taken part with others in the conservation of Dr. Robinson of Chicago, Illinois as Archbishop of Chicago. Robinson had the most successful business of selling heroin in religious mysticism by mail in the United States. By being an Archbishop he could turn him without paying income tax. When he died his son had to close down because apparently he did not know the super about being made an archbishop. Walle used to get people to turn over their charters to him, and it is possible that Walle had the legal documents under which Robinson operated, which would be an asset to Hoeller in setting up a similar operation.

I had contact with the phony duke by correspondence in the year 1958. At that time he was working with Doctor Newman in having the Nazarene College advertised. I was lured from both the Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches, and was seeking to make the Church come to me, hoping to organize a house church, obtaining orders from the Episcopal & Anglican, also planning to organize a society of priests and evangelists so that the small group I hoped to start could function with the support of other small groups. I had absolutely no desire to be a clergyman in the phony duke's church, but I had never heard of Doctor Newman, wanted to learn something about him, and explore the possibility of the duke acting as Newman's representative, and ordaining me and those I might recruit by advertising on his lecture tours. The Duke was most uncooperative in telling me about Newman, since he only had a franchise from Newman to give a single degree and Newman would of course have sold me a course in his own mail order seminary. I began to lose interest when I was offered the same thing for fifteen dollars in the Illuminatus that I could get for seventy dollars in the college.
Naturally I had wanted to investigate the Nazarene College since it was legitimate, I believed that if I took work in it, and required those I recruited to do likewise, it would expedite our getting to be friends with Newman. It did not stand my investigation.

I came into contact with Hoyle living in my area in 1958, and in 1959 he offered me the posts of Chancellor of His Grace, and Prior of the Society of Domestic Clerics. I joined him in petitioning affiliation of our group with the Eastern province of the American Catholic Church. At that time I wrote to the phony duke, ~~saying~~ stating that I would be ordained in the American Catholic Church, and would be prior of the Society of Domestic Clerics. I did so primarily because it was in my interest to be friends with his American agent. The duke had other ways to know about our activities, both

It is of considerable importance to me, and sent a copy to archbishop Haeller's office along with other people. Haeller was watching the Old Gentlemen's office while he was off on a trip, and wrote me a fussy letter stating that Hyde had never been or received in archbishop Haeller's communion in any definite or final manner due to the investigation into Hyde's orders and back ground yielding negative results. This was of concern to me, because I was writing to all I had been responsible for, interesting in Hyde's attempt to get them to drop him. Haeller had remarked that I had fraudulently misrepresented myself as an official of the American Catholic Church in during the publication of a letter benefiting my advertising, and since an infinite number of people I was writing to would well be in touch with Haeller through his department, that reason to be concerned.

Houlder published an editorial calling for a reply from Haeller concerning the American Catholic Church. Houlder was represented as American Catholic Church teaching the same thing as the phony club Church, and giving the phony club true advertising advertising support for the church lecture tour in october and november, the magazine being on the stand December. I changed my opinion of Michael St. John when met him, and stated that he was broke with Haeller after attending the church lecture. I knew that Houlder had no idea of letting my name appear in print, of little advertisement in a magazine edited by R.W.L entitled the Letter R.W.L did not dare to print in a magazine edited by R.W.L would have the same drawing power as a conventional one, with it helped out by letters in his letter to the editor.

In the most April 1964 issue of the Magazine, I was slandered without my name appearing. He stated that open communications to the press were not uncommonly used to contact editors with the author asking to get them published or threats to publish it themselves under the table. The letter so and so was afraid to print. He could not possibly exhibit such letters in a court to prove this statement. I had carefully written a letter impossible to print, and sent it to the editor to the editor department with copies to others, stating that I was contemplating advertising and publishing it myself under the title the letter. He deliberately chose a title similar to mine, and made other comments in context to back up Haeller against me.

The matter is of practical importance to me since the same issue carried a prophecy that the Presidents life was in danger and that this could be prevented. This was written before and published at L. The letter he did not dare to print did not mention F. C. but it did mention the sign he intended.

I am running out of space, so I will have to start closing. One point needs explaining. I received a letter from a woman, J. J. Keane associated with the magazine whom in 1966 I did not suspect of associating with Haeller, but now can establish to be working with him, trying to black mail me. Merely to keep her I joined the Civil Liberties Union. I got a rather nasty letter pretending I was trying to mock free legal advice. The character who signed it has been publicized as trying to have Garrison disbarred. This is probably coincidence but could indicate a tie in with Haeler.

I have given a mish mash of material which to a man in your field might appear somewhat incoherent, while it would make sense to one in mine. There is one point I want to leave with you. The Garrison office has been compromised by seeking the arrest of the McIntyre man. From my point of view he had probably nothing to do with it. The case for suspecting Haeller is just as good, and he quite possibly is not involved at all. In all this verbiage am simply trying to pass on the material to someone better qualified in this matter than I am. I can tie in Haeler in for my purposes quite legitimately. I approach this matter from the point of view of a home made Minitrue, I was not called to be a detective. The odds are, however, that this whole story about Haeler has never been evaluated at all, due to Martin having a quasi-official relationship with Garrison, and Martin and Propheta having motives of not wanting their ecclesiastical boats rocked.

I beg to remain with best wishes,

15 from Hyde querying him, and through meeting Bishop Pitt-Kethley of England who associated with the American Catholic Church by way of us. This Hoeller making the 'due' in 1960 was in a position to know about me and my activities, long before I learned of him in 1961, and to work consciously against me.

An article by Stephen A. Hoeller appeared in the April 1961 issue of Fate Magazine. I rightly interpreted this as written in the phony Duke's interest. Before Hyde broke communion with the late Dowell Paul Hoeller over the article, I wrote to the advertising department of the magazine, mentioned my suspicions, assured the publication of a letter which I wrote for Hyde's signature identifying him as a Bishop of the American Catholic Church, and ran two small ads at my expense which drew a small but good response, at least two members of dunned priests as a result of answering them. At that Hyde at the time he broke communion with the American Catholic Church had masked from me the fact that he turned over important charters when he had been conditionally reconciled to archbishop Hoeller.

Hoeller first appeared as a Consulting Editor or Editorial Consultant of the magazine Exploring the Unknown, and as the conductor of a Department, Occultism Through the Eyes of Religion in the August issue. Arrangements were made however while our group was still part of the American Catholic Church.

The Nazarene College was as far as men in search of ordination were concerned a crooked and dishonest racket. Those answering ads for its advertising would be men living in areas where there were no functioning Episcopal Dioceses. It was represented that those taking a degree from the College and being under the phony Duke's observation for three years, could be ordained priests in the Army Duke's church. If such were against homosexuality either on moral or practical grounds, it would follow that such of the money had been taken for three years, he would be told that they did not meet the standards required for ordination in the group, and they would have only a worthless piece of paper of no help to them in being ordained in some other group.

Hoeller is now running the same kind of racket. There is now no Nazarene College but it now costs the same thing to belong to the Brotherhood for three years, that it used to cost to buy a degree from the College. Those who belong to the Brotherhood for three years will be invited by the Duke to join the Church if he decides that they have reached the necessary spiritual development. The only people not interested in being invited to join the Church will be those interested in keeping ordination since it is a church that practices open communion, and organized so that people can put their money into it without belonging to it. Such, obviously will be deemed not to have the right degree of spiritual development after such money has been taken for three years, if against homosexuality. The existence of the underground church means there is a much greater field for such a racket than existed in 1958.

The magazine was published in our group's territory. The department was published with a blurb asking that letters be forwarded to Hoeller in care of the magazine. Both I and Hyde had successfully publicized the American Catholic Church. Those whom we had interested could be motivated to contact Hoeller with him being the Father Hoeller of the American Catholic Church. Those could answer my advertising for vocations could easily contact Hoeller and be elevated by him to the Army Duke's organization. Application to the Editor of that magazine's letter to the later behavior must be evaluated in this context.

When I broke with Hyde I intended to organize an interdenominational society similar to the Society of Domestic Clerics, with a self-constituted lay Evangelist acting as its Executive Director. I badly needed to get my name and address into print and wrote a letter to the Editor of the magazine, identifying him myself as a former clergyman in Hoeller's church. Robert A. W. Lowndes, the Editor, wrote back identifying himself as a deacon of the Episcopal Church. He was actually merely fishing for information, but he identified and asked if excerpts from my letter could be printed in a friendly enough way with Hoeller. I replied stating that if I could be helped out by getting my name in print, I could run small advertisements in his classified column. In a letter which I now interpret as threatening in a diarrhea language Lowndes did not seem to say no.

In the meantime he'd seen fit to issue a document which
