BUSINESSMEN AID INQUIRY ON 'PLOT'

50 in New Orleans Pledge $100 a Month to Garrison

By GENE ROBERTS

By GENE ROBERTS

Special to The New York Times

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24—
A group of at least 50 New Jorleans businessmen each pledged $100 a month today to District Attorney Jim Garrison's investigation into an aleged plot that culminated in he assassination of President Kennedy.

The pledges came after Mr. Darrison's investigation when assassination weeks and told the news agency Talked of Solved" the assassination weeks agency is of "work on details of vidence" necessary for arrest and conviction.

Mr. Garrison has told reporters: Parish coroner, said David W. Ferrie, whom Mr. Garrison has accused of being involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his death this week.

Dr. Chetta said Mr. Ferrie's physician, whom he declined to have transferrie grew increasingly demand told told the news agency increasingly demand told the news agency increasing Mr. Garrison declared that his staff solved" the assassination weeks agency in the continued of the word widence" necessary for arrest and conviction.

Mr. Garrison has told reporters.

Parish coroner, said David W. Ferrie, whom Mr. Garrison has accused of being involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his press release or made an off-involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his press release or made an off-involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his press release or made an off-involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his press release or made an off-involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his press release or made an off-involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his death this week.

Dr. Chetta said David W. Terrie's physician, whom he declined to have the week.

Tarrison declared that his staff was transferred to the press Interdece or made an off-involved in the assassination, had talked of suring Mr. Garrison before his death this week.

Dr. Chetta Sarc

Mr. Garrison sought the pri-vate financial support, he said, to prevent public disclosure of man involved who is still alive." trips his staff is making wouchers, Mr. Garrison contended tolay that "there were several plots and a change of direction in them did occur."

Although Mr. Garrison declined to elaborate except to say that "the names of the individuals and groups are say that "the names of the individuals and groups are known," a source within his office said several days ago that Mr. Garrison had a theory that an anti-Castro group, principally Cuban exiles, was plotting first to kill Premier Fidel her to work the said after the Petroleum Club meeting, referming to people in general, "have my word of honor [that there will be arrests], but it won't the said he might make the arrests within where the arrests within where the arrests within might make the arrests within might make the arrests within where the arrests within might make cipally Cuban exiles, was plot-ting first to kill Premier Fidel be tomorrow."

other part of the theory is that Lee Harvey Oswald, whom the Warren Commission named as the lone assassin of the president, was to have been the "trigger man" in a "plot" to kill Premier Castro. But this "plan" fell through when the Cuban Government refused to admit Oswald to the country, the theory goes, and another "plot" was hatched, this time to kill President Kennedy.

On his way into a meeting of his backers, who have formed an organization they call "Truth and Consequences," Mr. Garrison told newsmen today he had "solved" the investigation.

the impression with other newsthe New Orleans Petroleum The "Truth and Consequences" Club where the meeting was taking place.

The "Truth and Consequences" fund, he said, is open to anyone who wants to contribute.

The pattern has become familiar here this week. Each day, Dr. Nicholas Chetta the Orleans Mr. Garrison has told reporters Parish coroner, said David W.

Arrests 'Not Imminent'

the trips his staff is making during the investigation.

Under Louisiana law, the District Attorney's investigations are financed by fines and fees collected by judges, and he must file public vouchers for each expenditure he makes. By using private money, Mr. Garrison can avoid having to file vouchers,

Mr. Garrison contended to-

Then he added that his best estimate was that the arrests would come in "months." He made the same estimate Monday. Last weekend, he said he castro of Cuba and then later decided to assassinate President Kennedy.

According to the source, another part of the theory is that the Harvey Oswald, whom the Warren Commission named as however the commission named as how what is the way.

nessmen had already indicated "solved" the investigation.

The statement, reported by —for a total of $5,000 monthly United Press International, left —and that it was "possible" the impression with other newstmen that arrests were imminent, and they swarmed into fotal to $50,000.

In another development today

what appeared to be a suicide Kennedy murder, note was nearby.

In its report made public in that no traces of cyanide, heavy metals, alcohol, barbiturates or organic compounds such as lye had been found in the body. A final report on the cause of Mr. Ferrie's death is to be made next Tuesday, according to Dr. Chetta

After the death, Mr. Garrison announced that Mr. Ferrie was to have been arrested for involvement in the assassination.

However, members of the Warren Commission staff have said that Mr. Ferrie was investigated at length by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the commission concluded leans apartment this week, and tht he was not involved in the what appeared to be a suicide kennedy murder. In its report made public in But Dr. Chetta said that an late 1964, the Warren Commissutopsy and toxicological test indicated that Mr. Ferrie had died of natural causes.

He said that the tests showed that Mr. Ferrie had probably died of a brain hemorrhage and that no traces of cyanide, heavy

FERRIE'S TRAVELS

He Told Agents He Was in New Orleans Nov. 22

By NAN ROBERTSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—Documents in the National Archives added today details to the account of David W. Ferrie's movements during the week of President Kennedy's assassination.

Mr. Ferrie, who was found dead in his bed Wednesday in New Orleans, was a suspect in an investigation by the New Orleans District Attorney, Jim Garrison, of an alleged assas-sination plot. Mr. Garrison says the plot was hatched in New Orleans, and carried out in Dallas.

Secret Service records show secret. Service records. Show that Mr. Ferrie told agents shortly after the assassination that he was "positive" he had been in New Orleans on the day of the murder, Friday, Nov. 22, 1963, and on the preceding day Secret Service men quoted him as having said he was certain of his whereabouts "because tani of his whereabouts "because he had been in court in connection with a trial involving Carlos Marcello." The New Orleans city directory lists Mr. Marcello as the owner of the Town and Country Motel.

Weekend in Texas

Mr. Ferrie further testified that he left New Orleans about 9 P.M. the day of the assassina-tion with two male companions and spent the weekend in Hous-ton and Galveston, Tex. Federal Bureau of Investigation documents based on hotel records confirm that the three were in those cities that weekend.

The week after the assassi-The week after the assassination, I ce Fletcher, a porter at the Alamoet in Houston, showed F.B.I. agents a registration card with the information that D. W. Ferrie, Alvin Beaubouef and Melvin Correy checked into Room 19, Alamotel, at 4:30 A.M. Nov. 23, 1963."
The Nov. 23, 1963, date on the card was written over a Nov. 22 date, Mr. Fletcher explained to the agents that "this occurred because of the early occurred because of the early morning time which the sub-jects checked in the motel, but he was quite sure the right date was the 23rd."

The record also shows that the men stayed until the following day, Sunday, Nov. 24—but this conflicts with a card shown to the F.B.I. in Galveston.

Hotel in Galveston

Mrs. Mary Doveri, a clerk at the Driftwood Motel in Galveston, presented a registration card with the information that card with the information that the same three men checked into the Driftwood at 11 P.M. Saturday, Nov. 23. Another clerk, Shirley Dial, testified they left about 10 A.M. the next day.

Sunday.
The record cards for both motels stated that Mr. Ferrie and his companions were drivand his companions were driving a car with Louisiana license
No. 784-895. Mr. Ferrie had told agents that it was a light blue 1961 Comet station wagon (made by Mercury) that he had bought in New Orleans several weeks before. At the Houston motel, "it"was listed as" at "Comet automobile;" at Galveston as a "Ford station wagon" ton, as a "Ford station wagon."

The mileage and driving time between New Orleans and Houston are put by the American Automobile Association at 364 Automobile Association at 364 Miles and eight to nine hours.
Houston and Galveston are 50 miles apart, about one hour's drive. Dallas—where President Kennedy was killed — is 243 miles and 5 hours and 15 minmiles away from Houston.

Said he started back to New Orleans in the early afternoon of Nov. 25, arriving about 3 PM. He again talked to Mr.
Gill, "who accompanied him to the Orleans Parish District Attorney's office, where he was

Long Distance Calls

While at the Houston motel, Mr. Ferrie made several long distance calls. Hotel records listed one local call nd four to New Orleans.

The 16 pages of declassified reports on Mr. Ferrie in the National Archives are part of the Warren Commission records relating to the Kennedy assassinations—WSHO and WDSH. The other two were found to the Warren Commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the Warren Commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages with the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records relating to the Kennedy assassination. About 40 more pages in the warren commission records rel beuf Motel at winds beufs widowed mother, Evelyn, worked as a switchboard operator. The latter call was collect.

The latter call was collect.

The latter call was collect.

The latter call was consistent of the warren commission records, compiled the available records about Mr.

Mr. Ferrie told the Secret Service in a long statement that he and his companions returned to New Orleans about 9:30 P.M. Sunday, Nov. 24, 1963. He then "telephoned attorney G. Wray III [by whom he is employed as an investigator] several times."

At Mr. Gill's suggestion, not explained, Mr. Ferrie said he left New Orleans alone about midnight that night and drove to Hammond, La., where he stayed with a friend at Southeastern Louisiana College.

The friend, Thomas Compton, did research in Parcotics addiction, Mr. Ferrie said. Mr. Ferrie

Flashy Prosecutor

Jim Garrison

Special to The New York Times

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24 NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24

—Jim Garrison's style is the "big splash," that of the big man who does things in a big way. And the flamboyant approach of the 6-foot clinch District Attorney to the job of enforcing the law in Orleans Parish (County) usually is accompanied by a rash of headlines.

Man He has battled the businessmen of Bourbon Street,

in the Bourbon Street, News the garish strip of honky tonks and French restaurants that draw thousands of tourists to New Orleans. He once took on eight judges simultaneously in a running legal and verbal battle.

After these and other Gar-After these and other Garrison forays few here were surprised that he decided to tackle the Warren Commission and its conclusion that Lee Harvey Oswald assassinated President Kennedy alone and without heing a part of and without being a part of a conspiracy.

Even Mr. Garrison's flamboyance pales by comparison with some of the antics that have characterized Louisiana with some of the antics that have characterized Louisiana politics in the past. He has yet to match the late Gov. Earl K. Long, self-styled "last of the red-hot poppas." Nor has he equaled in showmanship the Governor's late brother, Senator Huey P. Long, the "kingfish" of "every man a king" fame. Until five years ago, Mr. Garrison was a relatively obscure assistant city attorney, best known for his habit of bar hopping along Bourbon Street, frequently in a white dinner jacket. Then suddenly he resigned with a headlinemaking attack on Mayor Victor Hugo Schiro, whom he accused of failing to enforce vigorously the city's laws, and leaped into the race for district attorney against the incumbent, Richard Dowling.

A flercely independent "reform" candidate, Mr. Garrison, despite his big figure, created a public image for himself as a David against Goliath, a Sir Galahad taking on machine politics single-himself as a David against Goliath, a Sir Galahad taking on machine politics single-handedly. But he did it with wit. It was hard even for his opponents not to laugh when he labeled Mr. Dowling as "the great emancipator—he let everybody go free."

Mr. Garrison, married and the father of three children, had the "common touch Although he was named James C. Garrison at his birth in Dennison, Iowa, on Nov. 20,

Witty and enterprising he insisted through World War II as a fighter pilot and his school years at Tulane University that he simply be called Jim. Finally, he tok legal action to make he tok legal action to make Jim his formal name.

He also managed to keep a ruggedly healthy look, practicing isometrics, but not to the extent of neglecting books. He often reads until 3 or 4 A.M.—lately in books that deal with the Kennedy assassination—at his home on Owens Boulevard in a new two-story New Orleans style Owens Bollevard in a new two-story New Orleans-style home in an area about two miles from Lake Pontehartrain where house prices range from $40,000 to $75,000.

Despite all this, Mr. Garrison was decidely an underdog in the 1962 district attorney's in the 1962 district attorney's campaign. However, the "big-splash" technique put him over. He hoarded his campaign money until the last, then saturated the television screens here with commercials during the last 24 hours of the campaign.

Mr. Garrison quickly proved that Garrison the campaigner

Mr. Garrison quickly proved that Garrison the campaigner was a dull, sedentary type, compared with Garrison the district attorney. He convicted men on charges that had head them dropped under the converse of the converse o victed men on charges that had been dropped under his predecessor, and established a record of never losing a murder case. He also began a clean-up of what he said was prostitution and blackmail on Bourbon Street. And when Mayor Schiro, not to mention many, of the city's businessmen, showed little enthusiasm, he buried them in literary and historical al-lusione in literary and historical allusions.

When eight city judges tried to cut off funds for Mr.
Garrison's investigation, he compared them to the "sacred cows of India... rushing to the defense of their institutions." The judges sued, succeeded in getting Mr. Garrison fined $1,000 for defamation of character, but Mr.
Garrison appealed to the United States Supreme Court and won.

Angry at Newspaper

Mr. Garrison claims juris-Mr. Garrison claims juris-diction in the Kennedy assa-sination investigation because Oswald once lived in New Orleans. When The New Or-leans States-Item said last week that he had spent $8,-000 on the inquiry, he became angry.

000 on the inquiry, he became angry.

Although Mr. Garrison had previously refused to say anything "on the record" about his investigation, he announced Saturday that he planned to make arrests for what he said was a "conspiracy" and a "plot" that culminated in President Kennedy's death. He seemed taken aback at the worldwide interest in his charges.

worldwide interest in ms charges.

Some local political observers are convinced that Mr. Garrison, who was instrumental in electing Gov. John J. McKeithen, is eyeing a Senate seat or possibly even the Vice-Presidency some day.