Court Tells F.B.I. to Release Files in Socialist Workers Suit

By ARNOLD H. LUBASCH

tigation was ordered by a judge more than 90 burglaries of the yesterday to release all its files party's Manhattan headquaron six alleged F.B.I. informers ters a decade ago.

John S. Siffert, a lawyer for the Government, argued that informers should be given an opportunity to make any object in the Redfearn file, which was tions they might have regard-turned over last Friday in Den-ing the release of their files be-ver.

the Socialist Workers Party informers as "an extremely imwere named by the party's lawyers in a court document.

Six Persons Named

okla., from June 1966 to March 1975; Stephen H. Cooper in In-1975; Stephen H. Cooper in Indianapolis, from January 1972 to April 1973; John Hollowell in San Diego, for many years ending about 1973; Orrie W. Norton in Minneapolis, Minn. for many years ending about 1970; James Nilson in Bloomington, Ind., during 1973:

1969 or 1970; James Nilson in Bloomington, Ind., during 1973; and Rodney Hertz in Washington, about 1967 or 1968.

According to the Socialist Workers Party, three of these have acknowledged that they were informers, but the party did not disclose how it had originally identified any of the six persons named.

six persons named.

The first file of an F.B.I. informer that was ever turned over to the party involved Timothy Redfearn, identified as an informer in Denver, where he reportedly bruglarized the party's offices on July 7.

Burglaries by F.B.I.

Mr. Redfearn's file was given to the party's lawyers last Friday by order of Judge Griesa, who is presiding over the lawsuit that the party filed three years ago for millions of dollars in damages against the F.B.I. and other agencies accused of illegal activities against the Socialist Workers.

In response to discovery motions growing out of the suit, the bureau has turned over documents acknowledging widespread activities against who were identified by the So-cialist Workers Party. The party's lawyer, Mr. Bou-din, told Judge Griesa at cialist Workers Party.

The Federal Bureau of Inves- the Socialist Workers, including

Judge Thomas P. Griesa issued the order in Federal District Court in Manhattan at the trict Court in Manhattan at the description of the course of the court in Manhattan at the description of the court in Manhattan at the d request of Leonard Boudin, a lawyer for the party, which is conducting en extensive law-suit against the bureau and other Government agencies.

Mr. Boudin said this was clear from material contained fore the material is turned over to the Socialist Workers Party.

But the judge ruled that the bureau must give the files to the party by Aug. 17 and that to be totally complete," but he party by Aug. 17 and that told the judge that "any uning told the judge the judge that "any uning told the judge that "any uning told the judge the ju the only information that could told the judge that "any unin-be deleted would be the names tentional discrepancies" in the the only information that could be deleted would be the names of other informers who had not yet been identified.

The civil information that had been released would be corrected.

Judge Griesa described the adjustment of the could be corrected.

portant issue in this case.'

In addition to the files on named informers, the Socialist The document said that the those on 19 informers who had

The F.B.I. vehemently objects