A Wolfson-Fortas Parley On S.E.C. Case Reported

By FRED P. GRAHAM Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, May 18-Life magazine reported today that Louis E. Wolfson had told Federal agents that former Justice Abe Fortas had discussed with him the Securities and Exchange Commission's case against Wolfson.

According to an article in the edition of Life being released omorrow, Wolfson added that Mr. Fortas had expressed the opinion that "the charges were based on legal technicalities."

Mr. Fortas resigned from the Supreme Court last Wednesday following disclosures that after he had become a Justice he received-and later paid backa $20,000 fee from the family foundation of Wolfson, who was later imprisoned for selling unregistered stock.

Mr. Fortas, reached at his home here, declined to comment on the article.

In his farewell letter to Chief Justice Earl Warren last week, Mr. Fortas explained that "since I became a member of the Court, Mr. Wolfson on occasion would send me material relating to his problems, just as I think he did to many other people, and on several 1 occasions he mentioned them

He added that the fee was for research and studies for the foundation and not for any

Continued on Page 24, Column 4

THE NEW YORK TIMES, MONDAY, MAY 19, 1969

Wolfson-Fortas Discussion Reported

Moreover, he said, he did not that makes it a felony for a nation had reached intercede for Wolfson or take Government official to represent a client in dealing with the offices could be filled ing his case.

Wolfson was interviewed on Thursday, May 8, at the Fed-meanor for a gradient minimum security prison at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla. He is serving a one-year prison to pay Justice Fortas, or his wife, if she survived him, $20,ou a year for life.

his letter to Chief Justice War-

The Justice Department said in a statement last week that Wolfson had been granted immunity from prosecution for was not under "any obligation" answers he might give and had to appoint a Jew to succeed the succeed and the succeed with the succeed to the succeed the succ jury subpoena. Capitol Hall

sources have

Continued From Page 1, Col. 2 said that the Justice Department is investigating possible concept of a "Jewish seat" on other advice or assistance. Government and of a second basis of individual merit. law that makes it a misde- Speaking at a news or

Nominees Face Inquiry

He is serving a one-year prison term there under a conviction for what his defense attorneys contended was at most a highly technical violation of the securities laws.

According to the Life article, Wolfson also told the two Federal Bureau of Investigation pagents who interviewed him that the foundation had agreed

The Senate majority leader, Mike Mansfield, said today that the Senate would make a searching investigation of future Supreme Court nominees, but that Senate Democrats would not oppose President Nixon's nominees simply on partisan grounds, if they were a so-called racial balance."

Goldberg said:

"I did not consider when I was appointed to the Supreme Court that I was occupying a Jewish seat. There is no need in our democracy to appoint a man to any institution of Government to preserve a so-called racial balance." The Senate majority leader, take more time than had pre-This information did not become public knowledge until Justice Fortas disclosed it in Fortas and retiring Chief Justice Warren.

Goldberg on Successor

The former United States Su-

a point political

Speaking at a news confermeanor for a Federal judge to ence at the closing session of the annual meeting of the American Jewish Committee at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, Mr.