Dear Mrs. Garity,

Because the post office says sending the book special delivery, book rate, may be a little faster than first class, we have sent it to you this way.

Perhaps you noticed they just stopped questioning me, that the show just began to peter out after about 3 hours and 40 minutes. I was satisfied, for it leaves ample fresh material for other broadcasts in the New York area, and these are not unlikely, from expressions of interest I have had.

There is another "look-alike". Billy Lovelady bears a remarkable resemblance to Oswald. From your letter, I think you will be especially interested in the Chapter "The False Oswald".

Some of the New York area bookstores do have WHITEWASH, but I do not know which ones. They can all obtain it now in regular commercial channels, from whatever distributors they deal with. At least two are in New York, Diamondstein and Bookazine.

Thank you for taking the time to extend your welcome good wishes.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weissberg,

After hearing you on the "Long John Nebel" show Saturday morning, called a few book stores and as yet they didn't have your book "Whitewash" - so as you suggested am writing to you for a copy.

Am enclosing a postal note for $6.00 which I hope covers the cost of the book and possibly first class postage. Think you mentioned the book was $5.00 and if the postage is more, will gladly pay it.

Even though you were outnumbered 3-1, thought you did a most admirable job in explaining statements in your book - would like to have heard you talk about the "look-a-likes" connected with Oswald - have often felt that Oswald and Larry Grafard were one and the same - a fewling isn't proof but keeps you looking for it.

Good Luck!

Sincerely,

Natalie Garity
