Dear Harold,

This letter should confirm our agreement. You have granted Richard Gallen and Company, Inc. the exclusive right to edit excerpts, sections and chapters from the following works: Whitewash 1, Whitewash 2, Photographic Whitewash, Whitewash 4, and Post Mortem into a one volume book on the Kennedy Assassination.

In consideration of the above, you will be paid a $5000 advance ($2,500 payable upon signing this agreement and $2,500 payable upon your approval of the edited manuscript) against an 8% royalty against all copies sold.

You agree to act as a consultant to the project and to write a new introduction to the book if Richard Gallen and Company, Inc. so requests.

In the event Richard Gallen and Company, Inc. sells the manuscript to any publishing company, you will receive 50% of the sale price, after your advance has been deducted. The royalties will then be divided as follows: 4% for you and 4% for Richard Gallen and Company, Inc.

If Richard Gallen and Company, Inc. publishes the manuscript through a joint venture with Carroll and Graf, Inc. then the terms of the $5000 advance and 8% royalty will still apply and this will not be treated as a sale.

Richard Gallen and Company, Inc. agrees to have the book published in 1992.

This agreement in no way restricts your right to continue to sell Whitewash 1, Whitewash 2, Photographic Whitewash, Whitewash 4 and Post Mortem by mail order as you are currently doing.

The duration of this agreement will be for the term of the copyright and its renewal.

Sincerely,

David Gallen
