Dear Richard,

The copies of the book came yesterday. It looks fine! I thank you and all others involved in it for that.

Quite a few people from coast to coast have helped me with copies of newspaper stories and reviews and with such other things as transcripts of TV shows on the book Case Opened. I would like to send them copies. I have not tried to count them all up yet but I think there are close to about three dozen.

When you have them to spare I'll appreciate it if you send them. Let me know the cost. If they are boxed at anything like this number, a box. If fewer, two boxes so there will not be the extra work of packaging.

There are a few reporters who have not helped me but who I've been in contact with. Like Morley on the Post, the one who wrote that Newman story I sent you. If you would like me to send copies to a few like him, let me know and I'll do that with a covering letter.

Thanks, and our best wishes,

Richard Gallen

I've started to make a list. It is at 35 now and when I start thinking of those who also helped with Never again! will probably grow. So would you please make it what as boxed comes to 50 or more? The list includes nine print press and two electronic so far.
