Dear Harold,

Thank you for your letter of March 15, 1974.
One clarification--Manny's brother did not know the whereabouts of Manny's wife and Manny's wife is not listed in the telephone directory. The brother believes they may no longer be together.

I sincerely regret your dissapointment on the contents of my last letter. Perhaps my recollection is not as accurate as yours. I have always respected you and liked you. I would be happy to see you should your business bring you to New York City.

My best personal wishes for success in your work.

Cordially yours,

Richard T. Gallen
