

Ray No. pen escape. Jls: Last November or early December I gave you a memo reporting info. from Jennie Galber to the effect that her brother, with Pacifica's WBAI, in searching for a copy of Frase-Up, found a Fifth Ave. book store clerk who as a worker inside the pen had knowledge that Ray was permitted to escape. I think I then suggested asking about this and I know I wrote Outler twice in an effort to learn more about Jennie, who was supposed to do and provide things she has not. I am reminded of this by a letter from an over-educated nuisance in which he reports that after the NBC JER interview WBAI aired a version of the story I got from Jennie. I think it would be worth asking WBAI for a tape and a memo from that reporter. Perhaps we would then want to interview clerk. If Outler is at Bud's 4/9 hrouhaha and you see him, asking him to get out what I wrote him and do what I asked might be helpful if he does it because first of all I want to address those suspicions. If Pacifica airs this west coast th Whites will probably hear it. IN 4/7/74
