

Dear Harold,

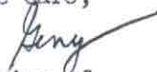

Mar. 21, 1995

I did take some notes on Hoax and when I get a chance to go over them I will let you know where insertions are misplaced. However, I probably did not spot all of them. I skimmed those sections that I had already read in Case Open. Hopefully in the next couple weeks I will get a chance to do this.

Enclosed is a letter I received accepting a paper which Dennis MacDonald and I have been planning to write for some time. I believe Dennis pulled a few strings to get us on the program. So now we are under the gun to turn something out. But I don't anticipate this will be difficult. We have more than enough material from just the last couple months. And I am certain Never Again! will be a major source for the eventual paper. The conference will be in Wash. D.C. Aug. 18-20th.

No further word from Loomis.

Take care,

P.S. Regards to Lillian. I will be thinking of her as I sit down to do our taxes during the next couple weeks

For my birthday Hanh-Trang surprised me with a copy of Marita Lorenz's tall tale of intrigue. Did you know she passed up a chance to blow away Fidel's private parts during one of their romantic escapades?

Dear Prof. Ginocchio:

I'm pleased to let you know that I've included your paper, "The Kennedy Assassination and the Failure of Institutions," in one of the Law and Society Division's sessions for the 1995 SSSP annual meeting. The tentative title of the session is "Critical Approaches in the Study of Law and Society." SSSP will be sending you further information at the end of March. Thanks for your interest in the Division, and I hope to see you at our business meeting in Washington.

Sincerely,

Steven E. Barkan, Chair
Law and Society Division, SSSP

Dear Gerry,

3/24/95

Good news on the SSSP and Law and Society! You'll get much interest!

And I'm glad you are spotting what I'd feared, insertions where they should not have been. I am not critical of them in that because they, rather the woman who did it, could have expected me to catch those things when I saw what I never saw and expected to have

Because there is no word on NEVER AGAIN! I presume there were no more questions. I was told I'd be called 10 days ago if there were. No call.

If they had the indexer work from page proofs the index should have been done for some time.

So, manufacture could be close. They'd planned for the book to have been made the end of this month and in the stores early next month.

Do you really expect to hear from Louis?

I did not get Marita Lorenz's book but from what little I know about her she was not to blow away anything she could use.

That touch was probably added by her ghost writer.

So much of the rest of her story is fiction I wonder how much about Castro is not

Speaking of book, I recommend very highly Don Gibson's Fighting Wall Street, published by Sheridan Square. It draws together much on JFK and his policies and hopes as I do not remember having seen done.

Recommend for you and for your library.

I think Dave has a copy but do not know if he's read it.

Beautiful work Betsy wrote about! We look forward to a visit from Bill beginning two weeks from today.

I plan to put what you suggest about the Case Open ms in the box in which I have the retyped ms. If you can pinpoint the page on which the retyping stopped maybe I can get what follows retyped. I am not able to do any more with that now. I'll also send a copy to my dear friend Dal McGuirk, in Auckland. He plans to write the assassination up in a book for high school. He has and cannot get that disk printed. He may write you or Bill about that. Fine fellow. He is also to teach an assassinations class this coming semester. We plus Dave have a high opinion of him. He teaches in a college for their native peoples. I've also sent him the disk of Waketh. Our love to you all,

Herry
