Gentlemen:

In consideration of my appearing on "The Barry Gray Show" to be recorded on March 7, 1967 (the "Show"), I authorize Hartwest Productions, Inc., its assignees and all parties acting pursuant to its authority ("Hartwest"), without restriction to produce, record, broadcast and otherwise use and exploit, in any way, throughout the world, during the term hereof, by any means or medium, my appearance on the Show, and to use in any way my name, likeness, and appearance for the purpose of advertising, publicizing and promoting the Show, and to delete or edit any part or all of my appearance on the Show; all as Hartwest may determine in its sole discretion. As used in this agreement, "appearance" includes my interview, statements, dialogue, utterances, and the like, in whole or in part; and "on the Show" includes in the studio, and elsewhere in connection with the Show, even though not included on the Show as broadcast. I agree that I shall have no right to inspect or approve my appearance on the Show or the exercise of the authorizations granted by me hereunder.

I represent and agree that I am free to enter into this agreement, that I have not entered into any prior agreements or commitments inconsistent herewith (and I will not do so), that I shall be solely responsible for my appearance on the Show and for any loss to any party arising therefrom, and that I am over the age of twenty-one years. The term of this authorization shall commence on the date hereof and shall be without limitation.
