I am currently (and will be for the next year) in the process of writing a long re-search paper on (at least) the assassinations of JFK, RFK, MLK, Malcolm X, Mary Jo Kopechne, and the attempted assassination of George Wallace. My main focus at this point is trying to find as many connections as I can between them (like the tramp who turns up in the King police composite sketch, for instance). If you have the time during the coming year, I would very much appreciate hearing from you if you find out anything new of importance; I try to keep up with things as much as possible, but I'm sure there's a lot that manages to escape me.

If you have any spare time, I'd also appreciate hearing from you in regard to the following:

- ① Any leads at all you could give me (articles, names of resource persons to contact, etc.) on the assassination of Malcolm X - I have been unable to find much of interest on this from a "conspiratorial" angle, although everyone I talk to seems to have a vague knowledge that there was a conspiracy involved (or at least more to the case than the New York Times is willing to admit).
- ② Your opinion on the claim by Canfield and Weberman that two of the tramps were really Hunt and Sturgis.
- ③ Lee Webb, former National Secretary of Students for a Democratic Society, informs me that the last phone call Marilyn Monroe made on the night of her death was to Bobby Kennedy. Do you know anything more about this?
- ④ Ed Sanders states in his book, The Family, that RFK had dinner with Roman Polanski and Sharon Tate immediately before he went to the Ambassador Hotel and was shot.

This is a very interesting piece of information, but I'm not sure if it means anything. Do you have any more information on this?

⑤ Any connections between the assassinations that aren't generally known (I am familiar with a lot of the commonly available material, having a complete file of Computers and People and a library of about 30 books).

⑥ Several years ago I was told a story by Dorothy Mattimore, who is a friend of my mother's and who I understand worked with you for a while back in the 1960s, that you were once shot at (presumably because of your research activities) and were only saved by a copy of the Warren Report you were carrying which stopped the bullet. Is this a true story? The reason I ask is that it seems almost too ironic to believe!

I hope all of this isn't too much to ask of you. In any event, I just want to say thank you for all the time Over explains brevity and haste. I think Dottie was pulling legs. I've not been shot at. ..

You never find a less dependable source than Computers. Believe not a word, especially not for school work. ...The print of the sketch/picture is what the hell kind of investigation is it. And who cooked it up. ...Weberman and Garfield are crazy at best. No sense to that at all and none to any use of those pictures of which I know. Always misrepresented. ...
Think you'd do well to include Lisa. You've undertaken too big a job and you don't display having obtained a capability to discriminate between the real and the unreal. Your prof is going to consider you crazy if you do not pull in on some of this....The prices went up a year ago. Appreciate your sending the $5.05 difference. New list enclosed....
With the restriction of what I can do I have to eliminate most correspondence or I'd be doing nothing else. Thanks and good luck, Harold Weinberg 2/27/76
