Dear Terry Hamblen,

Thanks for the copy of Pardon Me titled Dallas Conspiracy and your enclosed, undated letter.

I have skimmed this illness set in print. I'm glad to have it as another sample of the prevailing illness. But it is not worth the time to read it.

This man at the opening claims to be a Christian yet does not consider that of Jesus the worst nurder in history?

His bibliography includes the hangings of a political nut tree but no work on the warren "eport? The relevant is irrelevant, the irrelevant is relevant, and this is worth serious attention?

Hore, Thomsen the one exception? His shots by the dozen accepted?

Umbrella men, more of the same. It is nutty on the face of it. Or, both are.

Garrison: I said "shadow of a happy ending". It remains s shadow, not a happy ending.

Nord Davis, Jr. is one of the dedicated wrong.

Sincerely,

Dear Wr. Weisberg:

Some time ago I wrote you a letter ordering one of your books and mentioned that I had a magazine which said that the real assasian of John Kennedy was on the south side of Tlm Street. You mentioned that two men on either side of the street had umbreakles. I have been trying to convince myself that one of the men holding such an instrument was the case with this magazine, but I have been unable to do so.

This magazine is self-explanatory and I thought maybe you would like to read it. I certainly am not a student of the John Eirch Society and don't agree with them at all, but this magazine and the pictures in it certainly buzzle me.

I was wondering if you would write me a reply letter and comment on this magazine and its unusual contents. There is no reason to return the magazine. You may have it as free gift.

Also, please, you once called Jin Garrison as the man who conwould bring the real killers to justice. Do you still feel that way, and if not, who will?

Thank you for your reply.

Sincerely, Terry Hamblen
