Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Please send me a price list of all the books you have written on the assassination of President Kennedy. I have read most of, if not all of Whitewash, Whitewash II, Photographic Whitewash, Oswald in New Orleans. I enjoyed them immensely. I love the way you write. Much better than the other critics of the Warren Report. More knowledge, deeper insight, new discoveries, combine to make you the authority on this subject.

The happy ending you expressed at the end of Oswald in New Orleans has not come true. What is Jim Garrison up to now that he is no longer the D. A. in New Orleans? Have things come to a stand still?

Do you think, as Mrs. Garrison alluded to, that the President was shot at least once by a man in a man hole and made his escape via the sewer system? The grassy knoll theory has been almost confirmed. Mr. Garrison, before the Clay Shaw trial, tried to extridite from California a certain Edgar Eugene Bradley. This effort failed despite the fact that "this man took a physical part in the assianation." I remember on the television that Mr. Garrison produced pictures of men who were arrested down by the railroad tracks. These were supposedly the grassy knoll assassians. Do you think Mr. Garrison will be of use in this area now and in the future?

Mr. Weisberg, what about Post-Mortem: The Suppressed Kennedy Autopsy, Post-Mortem III: Secrets of the Kennedy Autopsy, a book tentively titled Whitewash III: The Archives, and a book refuting "Manchesters Fiction"? Please send me a price list of these.

I was shocked and appaled at the blatent pornography in the Mark Lane book, Executive Action. From what I have read you wouldn't want to write like that. I am very muched prejudiced in your favor when it comes to all the critics and their efforts. Rush To Judgement was a good book but not, I feel, as good as Whitewash.

Mr. Weisberg, what do you think is the next step?

Sincerely,

Terry Hamblen
